3.—Always make your designations clear.

10:30—Morning Worship was conducted by Mrs. J. P. Giffen of Emerson, Ia.

Faith in the Conquering King, our Victorious Leader, was the leading thought of the hour. Appropriate songs were sung and many earnest prayers were offered. The necessity of abiding in Christ and He in us was impressed upon us, and if we are to be fishers of men, we must follow Him.

The Junior Rally, which followed, cannot be too highly spoken of. It showed that unusual effort had been made by both leader and children, to make it one of the best things on the program.

The exercises were far above the ordinary, and most pleasing to the audience. Both Mrs. S. G. Huey, and the children, deserve great credit for their efforts. As they marched out of the church singing, expressions of praise could be heard on all sides.

A most earnest prayer for the children, by Mrs. H. C. Campbell, closed an instructive and inspiring session.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, 7:30 P. M.

Thank-Offering Service.

Of all the services of the Convention, none are more solemn than the Thank-offering service. Mrs. Mary Clokey Porter, the Thank-offering Secretary, presided at this session and announced the subject of the service, "The World's Redemption," and the "Key-Note," "With the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is plenteous redemption."

After an Anthem by the choir, the congregation sang No. 321 of the Bible Songs, and Mrs. Robt. Stewart of Rawal Pindi, offered the prayer of Thanksgiving. Following, came a most beautiful and carefully prepared responsive service. As the Offertory Song was sung, the delegates, in solemn procession, came forward and presented their loving gifts. Mrs. George Moore offered the prayer of consecration. Mrs. Porter announced the Thank offering of 1909 to be $47,365.57. To this offering, our women in the Foreign Missions, contributed no small part, and from the Mountaineers in our own land, came over $4.00.

The chairman of the Tellers announced the count of the ballots, and Mrs. H. H. Bell of San Francisco, was declared elected 1st. Vice President. "The story of Foreign Missions in Garb," was a most pleasing exercise conducted by Miss Mary Lawrence of India. Eight missionaries dressed in the costumes of various countries, took part and in brief stories, pictured the lives of the women who are living in heathen darkness. Mrs. H. C. Campbell closed this exercise and the afternoon session with earnest prayer for all the mission fields. Adjourned.

THURSDAY EVENING, 7:30.

The Devotional Service was led by Miss Sallie E. Dickey of India. Phil. 2:10-11 being the text used. After a moment of silent prayer, Mrs. J. A. Henderson led in prayer. Miss Dickey impressed upon us the fact that the time is coming when every tongue shall confess Christ and that each has his work to do to bring it about. After singing No. 42, Miss Buchanan of Egypt, closed with prayer. Mrs. H. C. Campbell then presented the missionaries present: Mrs. Robert Stewart, Mrs. W. T. Anderson, Miss Mary Lawrence, Mrs. W. E. Nichol, and Miss Sallie Dickey, all of India; Miss Carrie Buchanan and Miss Elnora McDowell of Egypt: Miss Sylvesta Keenan, Camden, Alabama, of the Freedman's station and Miss Houston of the Mountaineer Work of Kentucky.

The three addresses of the evening, by Miss Lenora McDowell, Miss Bertha Houston and Miss Sylvesta Keenan, gave the audience a broad view of the Mission Work and impressed us with the earnestness of the workers and the wonderful work accomplished through them. A beautiful Anthem by the choir and a solo by Miss Eva Montgomery interspersed the addresses and filled not only the Church, but our souls with sweet music.

Mrs. George Moore and Mrs. Mary Clokey Porter offered prayers and after singing No. 144, Rev. J. W. Ashwood closed with prayer and benediction.

FRIDAY MORNING 8:40.

The Devotional Services were led by Mrs. Edward P. McLain. "Our Aspirations" was the subject, with Phil. 3:14 as the leading thought.

Minutes read and adopted.

A full discussion of the whole matter brought forth an earnest plea from the missionaries present not to delay the sending out of the Commissioners. Pledges were received from Presbyterials and individuals to the amount of $2,236.70.

A motion that all pledges be paid to the Treasurer, Mrs. J. B. Hill, through the Presbyterial Treasurers, by Sept. 1st, 1910, was carried.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions which follows, was adopted as read:

Report of the Committee on Resolutions.

Whereas,

Our God has so abundantly blessed us during the past year,

Resolved:—

I That we thank and praise Him for the increased contributions, for the larger interest in our Missionary Magazines, for the growth in members, and the spiritual uplift of this Convention.

II That we thank God for the safe return of our missionaries to the home land, and that we have been permitted to have the presence of so many of them with us and that we take this opportunity to thank them for so unselfishly contributing to the pleasure and profit of this Convention.

III That as we bow humbly to the will of God in taking from us, Rev. J. H. Morton and Mrs. Everett Campbell, and commit their loved ones to his all protecting care, we may so heed God's call to us that each woman in this Convention will go home determined to pray daily for a reviving and awakening of the Church at home.

IV That we thank God and take courage for the increased temperance territory in our Western and Southern States.

V That we commend the Pennsylvania Railway and the Carnegie Steel Works for their recent ruling in regard to a stricter observance of the Lord's Day.

VI That we place on record, our sincere appreciation of our President for the quiet and capable manner in which she has conducted the Convention; the choir and the organist who led us in our praise; the faithful ushers, the Pastors and people of the St. Louis United Presbyterian Churches, who have so kindly received us into their homes, and last but not least, the Local Committee who have anticipated and so fully supplied our every need.

Mrs. D. W. McQuiston,
Mrs. E. C. Little,
Mrs. Parkhouse,
Mrs. Best,
Mrs. Fitch.

The President presented the new officers to the Convention, also members of the Board and Magazine Committee. Mrs. H. C. Campbell announced the World's Missionary Conference, soon to be held in Edinburgh, Scotland. The W. G. M. S. is entitled to four delegates. Mrs. John A. Wilson, member of the Women's Board, Pittsburg, Pa., Mrs. George Moore, member of Women's Missionary Magazine of Xenia, Miss Anna Y. Thompson and Miss Rena Hogg of Egypt, have been appointed delegates to the convention in Assembly Hall.

Miss Jean Denham and Miss Jean MacLean of Pittsburg, Pa.; Mrs. Elizabeth Dalgleish of Portland, Oregon and Mrs. Elizabeth Flemming of Edinburgh, Scotland, will attend the sessions in Synod Hall. Earnest prayers were offered for the safety of these delegates while enroute to their destination.

Mrs. J. R. Logue, 1st Vice President, on motion was requested to send letters of sympathy to Mrs. S. M. Kelso, of the Women's Missionary Magazine and Mrs. Knight, President of the local society.

Mrs. Campbell read the following by-law which had been presented to the Convention last year: "Any person chosen by unanimous consent of the Women's General Missionary Society, may be made an honorary President of the Society. On motion, this by-law was adopted.

A motion that Mrs. W. C. Hutchison be made an honorary President of the W. G. M. S. carried.

The following Resolution was received from the women of India:

American Mission,
Sangla Hill, Punjab,
April 12, 1910.

Dear Mrs. Ashwood:—

I am enclosing a copy of a resolution passed at the recent meeting of the Women's Presbyterial held at Gujranwala. It was a most inspiring meeting. About 200 women attended. The large majority of them could not read, but they were interested in every session and gave the best attention. Fourteen women went from our district—only one could read—I think that is a fair proportion of the number who could read.

These women paid their own way and paid board while in Gujranwala. What if beds were not to be found for all, or if the food was exhausted before all had eaten, they were happy and contented, and said, "we can eat and sleep at home, here we are satisfied in the things of God!" Every number on the program was carried out and throughout the whole meeting the duty of each Christian to witness the others was most prominent, and I am sure many of these sisters went home to their villages feeling a responsibility and a duty never felt before towards their heathen neighbors and heathen relations.

The Thank-offering was 350 rupees and had been sent as soon as collected, to Syria to the sufferers there.

Also 56 rupees was given at Gujranwala and was given to Miss Mukerjee for her widows that she has in her home. Miss Mukerjee is our next President, a most earnest, faithful worker. She has charge of a large non-Christian girl's school in Gujranwala, and constantly has some widows with her for protection and teaching.

I trust you will have a most blessed meeting in St. Louis. The missionaries at our meeting were very few—only four present throughout the meeting, as on that day, Mrs. E. E. Campbell of Jhelum, was laid away to await the resurrection morning. Our Indian sisters were much impressed by her faith and courage in awaiting death and her triumphant homegoing has been a glorious witness to them. It has brought us to our knees in utter dependence in Him, and again our ranks are broken and we must move up closer. SEND US MORE RECRUITS.

With love, Kate A. Hill.

N. B. We reported seven societies last year. This year, there are 16 and we know of four more organized too late to be included in this year's report.

K. A. H.

Resolution Passed by the Women's Presbyterial at Gujranwala, India, April 6th, 1910.

To our sisters in America, we send many "salams" and thanks for all their prayers and labors on our behalf in the past. We urge them to remember us in the future. Because of God's abundant blessing on their past labors, the harvest is white. The laborers are few. SEND US MORE LEADERS AND TEACHERS TO TEACH AND TRAIN US FOR THE MASTER'S SERVICE.

Especially remember our daughters. Most of us have not been in school. We want our daughters educated. We need more schools. We want our daughters to enjoy the blessings not many of us have enjoyed.

A motion, that tried recipes be sent to Mrs. Alter to form a household cook book to be sold and proceeds placed in the contingent fund of the W. G. M. S., carried.

Mrs. Stevenson announced that about 300 subscriptions had been received for the Junior Magazine. About 630 subscriptions were received for the Women's Magazine. In view of the fact that $2,236.70 has been pledged by the delegates present, to the expense of sending out the Commissioners to the foreign fields, a motion was made and carried that the Board be instructed to make arrangements to send the two representatives and that further pledges be sent as soon as possible to Mrs. J. D. Sands, Secretary of the Board.

Over $65.00 was received in the congregational offering lifted at the Thank-offering Service.

A telegram was received from the Presbyterial of Los Angeles Presbytery, extending greetings, Phil. 4:19, and pledging the salary of Miss Rose McCullough.

The minutes were read and adopted. After the closing prayer by Mrs. Ashwood, Rev. Mr. Park of Oakdale, Ill., pronounced the Benediction.

Mrs. J. W. Ashwood, President.
Mrs. J. T. Logue, Secretary.

Report of Railroad Secretary.

Application for rates was made to the Central, Trunk Line, New England and Western Passenger Associations. On account of legislative action, establishing a maximum passenger fare of two cents a mile in the states through which these associations operate, no special reduction in railroad rates was granted except in parties of ten or more persons traveling together. The Western Passenger Association granted no concessions whatever. No certificates were used.

There was an attendance at the St. Louis Convention of one hundred and forty-five delegates, and quite a number of visitors. It was impossible to obtain the exact number of visitors present. Sixty delegates and visitors from Pittsburg and East took advantage of the party rates granted. Two special sleeping cars were attached to the "St. Louis Limited" over the Pennsylvania Railroad.

We wish to record our appreciation of Mr. F. W. Conner, D. P. A.; Mr. F. B. Sankey, C. P. A. of the Penna. Lines, Pittsburg; Mr. J. W. Happel, C. P. A. of Penna. Lines, St. Louis; Mr. T. H. Edwards, Pas. Agent of the Chicago and Alton; Mr. Geo. F. Schur, Pas. Agent B. & O. R. R., and Mr. Happel, representative of the Northern Pacific R. R. for courtesies and special attention shown the delegates.

As the next Annual Convention is to be held in Greely, Colorado, your Railroad Secretary has investigated the train schedule and cost of transportation, that arrangements for attendance at the Convention may be made at an early date.

Leave Pittsburg in the evening, reach Chicago the next morning and arrive in Greely about noon the following day.

The following is an approximate estimate of Railroad fare. By taking advantage of the home seekers excursion, which leaves on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of May, the fare would be $49.20 the round trip. The party rate would be about $32.00 one way. These rates are subject to slight changes.

Pullman sleeper rate $8.50 one way. A tourist sleeper one half—$4.25.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan E. McNall,
Railroad Secretary.

REPORT OF

Recording Secretary.

The words of the Psalmist—"The Lord of us hath mindful been"—comes into our thoughts as we look back over the past year. At times the way seemed dark and we knew not which way to turn; we felt our weakness and knew not how to take the next step, but the Father ever led us into the light and directed and guided us in all our ways. Now, at the close of the year, we can look up to Him with renewed confidence and love and add the next line of the Psalm—"And He will bless us still."

At the first meeting of the Board, June 1st, 1909, Mrs. Annie R. Herron, a Charter member and for many years the beloved President of the Board, on account of failing health, presented her resignation as a member of the Board and it was accepted with deep regret.

September 21st Miss McNall was elected Chairman of Finance Committee and Mrs. R. C. Morton was elected Secretary of Home and Ministerial Relief.

In October, Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Stevenson were sent to the Young Peoples' Christian Union Convention in Monmouth, Illinois, to represent the Women's General Missionary Society.

Major Stewart was ever the wise counselor, cheerfully and faithfully doing whatever was asked of him. His last thought on business matters being given to our work. Mr. William Wilson, of the firm of Houston, Frew and Wilson, kindly tendered his services as attorney until the Board should be ready to choose a successor to Major Stewart.

The work of the Board has grown to such an extent, that the one office was much crowded, and the room used as a meeting room being needed by another organization of the Church, it was found necessary to have enlarged quarters for our work and two additional rooms adjoining the former Board room were secured and are now fitted up for office rooms.

Twenty-two Senior and nineteen Junior Life Members have been added to the roll during the year.

Twenty-two regular and ten special meetings of the Board have been held during the year, and Members of the Board have made sixty-seven addresses to congregational and presbyterial societies.

The term of office of Mrs. George W. MacDonald, Miss Susan McNall, Miss E. D. Brown, Mrs. Ada Kerr Wilson and Mrs. Samuel Yourd expires with this meeting. Respectfully submitted, (Signed) Mrs. J. D. Sands,

Secretary.

The Sixth Church, Chicago, paid off one loan amounting to $400.00 during the year. Three congregations made no payments on their loans, while all, with one exception, paid the interest promptly, at or near the time it was due.

The Contingent Fund to which is contributed the interest on daily bank balances, interest on loans and contingent fund from Presbyterials has been used to meet all current expenses necessary in the general work, including the expenses in connection with the Thank-offering work. And thus no money contributed to missions has been used in meeting the expenses necessary in carrying out so great a work.

REPORT OF

Statistical Secretary

FOR YEAR ENDING MARCH 31ST, 1910.

As we meet again to review the year's work of the Women's General Missionary Society, there comes to mind the queries—What have we done that is worth while? Have we progressed in advancing the causes to which our support has been pledged? Have we done the best that could be done in the work we have undertaken?

The records we have gleaned testify to the fact that our women have been faithful to the charge committed to their [illegible] that they have a determined purpose which increases in strength and earnestness each year and that God's blessing has been upon our work.

A detailed statistical report will be printed in full in our Annual Report in the Women's Missionary Magazine. Time forbids us to give here more than a brief summary of the year that is closing.

The Women's General Missionary Society is composed of 68 Presbyterials, 63 in our own country, 3 in Egypt and 2 in India. We are pleased to report a new Presbytery, Texas, which has as yet no Presbyterial organization, but reports one society and steps being taken to organize a Presbyterial. Two Presbyteries, Spokane and Tennessee, report no Presbyterial organization, but reported the work of the societies in the Presbytery.

The year closing, reports 873 Women's, 220 Young Women's and 358 Junior Societies, a total of 1451 societies; a gain of 198 societies over the year ending March 31, 1909. The total membership reported at the close of this year, is 36,789, a gain over last year, of 756.

The total contributions of societies for all purposes, missions, thank-offering, congregational work, district work and Women's Association work was $144,147 of which $31,304 was used in congregational work, $3,209 in district work and $1,701 given to the institutions under the care of the Women's Association. A gain of $10,735 is shown over the total contributions of last year. These figures do not compare with those given by the Treasurer of the Women's General Missionary Society, for money used in congregational, district and Women's Association work does not pass through the General Treasury and therefore is not reported by the Treasurer.

The number of boxes sent was 645. The estimated value of these was placed at $7,037. The number of Women's Magazine subscriptions was reported as 7,529, while the number of Junior Magazines was 5,882.

We regret to add that 184 societies failed to report. 160 did not report anything and 24 reported all but membership. This leads us to mention a matter that is of utmost importance in the prosecution of the Statistical work. The complaint of many Presbyterial Secretaries was that societies either failed to report, or, their reports were so delayed as to interfere with the completion of the Presbtyerial report. Two society reports came in too late to be inserted in the General Summary. Your Secretary feels impelled to urge societies to avoid dilatoriness or failure to respond to the blanks sent out. I beg the delegates to mention this matter to your societies at your Presbyterial Conventions.

Undesignated money was divided among the Foreign, Home, Freedmen and Parsonage Departments.

Allegheny Presbyterial reported $650 pledged to send the representatives of the Women's Board to the Foreign field. And now if we would, in the coming year, desire the consciousness of progress, let us return to our work with the determination not to fall below the standard we have set this year, but go on to still greater achievement.

"We are not here to play, to dream, to drift.
We have hard work to do, and loads to lift.
Shun not the struggle; face it. 'tis God's gift."

Respectfully submitted,

Susan E. McNall,

Statistical Secretary.

Literature Department.

One hundred years ago there was published but one magazine in which the entire space was given to the subject of Missions.

Today, at least one hundred magazines are available for Missionary information.

Then, but few books containing Missionary facts could be secured; today, in one university alone, a library of more than five thousand volumes, is provided for the use of the students.

In the study of missions, two great factors deserve mention—The Central Committee on the United Study of Missions and the Young People's Missionary Movement.

The former has published each year, for a period of ten years, a Mission Study for Women's Societies. Nine of these are so well known as to need no mention here. The tenth, the Western Women in Eastern Lands, has just been issued; a Study Book for the Juniors has also been published each year. This year's book is "The Finding Out Club." The Young People's Missionary Movement has for the past four years, issued on an average, four text books for the Young People's Society, and two supplementary books for Juniors.

In addition to books and magazines, thousands of leaflets have been published, varying in size from one to twenty-five pages, containing a wonderful amount of missionary information in condensed form.

With this almost unlimited supply from which to draw, there is absolutely no excuse for ignorance with regard to the subject of Missions.

Why should we be informed? Some one has said, "It is easier to grow a Cedar of Lebanon in a flower pot than to get enthusiasm from an empty head."

Missions is the business of the church. Without knowledge, interest and enthusiasm are out. We can neither work, pray nor give intelligently unless we are informed with regard to the work and its needs.

With this wonderful supply of literature, the need of every age may be met; for the small children, are found interesting stories of child life in various parts of the world; for the youth there are the more stirring tales of real adventure on the part of the Missionaries; for young people, stories of achievement; and for the older are studies of "World Wide Missions."

The Women's General Missionary Society publishes two Missionary Magazines—one for Women and one for Juniors, both of which rank with the best of denominational magazines.

Send for the new catalogue, published by the Literature Committee; the new map, the game, the Mission Study for Juniors, and many interesting leaflets.

Wont you urge the election of a Literature Secretary in your Presbyterial to assist in this great work of distributing Missionary Literature.

REPORT OF

Young Women's Work.

"One safe, desirable, attainable quality of mind, is attention. It grows in the poorest soil and in every climate; and in its own good time bears flowers and fruit." Your close attention is requested while you hear the report of the Young Womens Work for the past year; 213 Societies, including Young Women's, Kings Daughter's, and Mission Circles were reported for the year; and 22 new societies making a total of 235 Young Women's societies, with 4,982 members.

Contributions for the year	$ 10 431
Thank-offering	4 273 44
Total	$14 704 44

Of this amount $1,890 was given to the "Young Women's Special" work; and the residue, was given to congregational work; and to the work under the care of the Women's General Missionary Society. Only 105 societies contributed to the "Young Womens' Special;"—only 64 societies used Thank-offering boxes; 211 tithe payers are reported; 18 presbyterials report no young Women's Societies. We hope the number may be less next year. We believe the increased number of societies, and the large increase in the membership, is due, in part at least, to more careful work done by the secretaries of the auxiliary societies; and to the aid of the presbyterial secretaries of Young Women's work. We are convinced also, that there is a growing interest among the Young Women, in the missionary work of the Church. We think it fitting, just here, to make special mention of our Young Women's Societies in Foreign fields. In Assiut, Egypt, the society has 132 members. The Thank-offering was $70 and other contributions $56. Another society in the Delta, Egypt, has 18 members, their thank-offering was $7.25, other contributions $16. And another in the Girls' School at Cairo, Miss Kyle, president, has 150 members and their Thank-offering was $302.89. Such reports from the Young Women of our Foreign field, must surely stir the hearts of the Young Women at home to give yet more freely out of their abundance.

While in the past year the membership has greatly increased, better work still should be done the coming year. Several Presbyterial secretaries wrote: "I cannot get a report from all the societies, although I have telephoned and written repeatedly." If at first you don't succeed, try, try again. 'Tis a lesson you should heed. Try, try again. Sometime we hope to have an accurate and complete report. This can only be done by the earnest, persistent help of the secretary of each auxiliary society; and of each Young Women's presbyterial secretary. Won't you each one try hard next year to have a good report from your own society; and send it promptly at the end of the year to the Presbyterial secretary?

The total contributions are a little less this year than last, $92.18 less. This is due, we believe, to the fact that so many of the Young Women's societies do not separate their Thank-offering from the Women's society; and they give so largely of their money to congregational work and do not report it. Some, do not understand just what is meant, by "Young Women's Special." It does not mean money that you may give to any special work of your own choosing. It is a definite work, given to us by the Women's General Missionary Society. Hitherto, it has been to pay the salary of Miss Beatty in India, Miss Totten in the Southland, and Miss Houston in the school for Mountaineers at Frenchburg, Ky. But listen! The past year we have paid in full the salaries of these three, and have $514 surplus. This was given this year toward the salary of Dr. Anna Watson of Tanta, Egypt. Might we not support a Young Women's Special worker in Egypt making 4 for the coming year? By a little special effort we could pay the salary of a Medical Missionary which is $750 per year. Each member of Young Women's Societies is asked to give $1 per year, over and above her regular monthly offering, to the "Young Women's Special."

We believe it is profitable to use the Thank-offering boxes. It is so much easier to put an offering in the "little box," just at the time we are conscious God has been especially good to us. If we wait until the end of the year, we forget to count so many, many of our blessings.

Only 211 tithe payers. May their tribe increase. "We cannot give our hearts to God, and keep our pocket-books." "Lay not up for yourselves treasures on earth."

"Tall was my camel and laden high;
And small the gate as a needle's eye.
The City within was very fair,
And I and my camel would enter there.
You must lower your load, the porter cried
You must throw away that bundle of pride,
This I did, but the load was great,
Far too wide for the narrow gate.
Now said the porter, to make it less,
Discard that hamper of selfishness.
I obeyed, tho' with much ado,
Yet still, neither camel nor I got thru.
Ah, said the porter, your load must hold,
Some little package of trust-in-gold.
The merest handful, was all I had,
Yet, "Throw it away" the porter bade.
Then lo, a marvel! the camel tall
Shrank to the size of the portal small,
And all my riches, a vast estate,
Easily passed through, the narrow gate."

There is much that is encouraging in the report of the past year. Let us work and pray more the coming year. And let us have large faith.

"The larger the bin
The more He puts in."

Remember our motto—All things are possible to him that believeth. We believe it is possible to have a live wide-a-wake society in every congregation, and a Young Womens presbyterial secretary in every presbyterial. Our Father is so good to us. "We know not what awaits us; He kindly veils our eyes; But every day He sends to us, Some sweet, and glad surprise." Let it be our end and aim to serve Him.—Not only for one day or one week, or one month or one year; but while life and being last.

Mrs. J. A. Alexander
Young Woman's Secretary.

REPORT OF

Women's Missionary Magazine.

To The Women's General Missionary Society.

Since our last annual meeting three hundred and sixty-five days have come and gone with their sorrows, their joys, their sunshine and shadows. All these days have been filled with work for those who were willing to work. Many workers have fallen by the way or have been taken for larger service. Those who remain are overwhelmed with the magnitude of the work, the great responsibilities laid upon us by the increasing opportunities and open doors. None feel this responsibility more than your Magazine Committee. We meet each month for prayer and consultation and endeavor at these meetings to give each department of the work under the care of the Women's General Missionary Society sufficient space to bring the work and workers before the women of the church, that workers and means may be secured. Sheldon says "The desire to serve is the source of all the other positive qualities." Your Magazine Committee pray for the power to serve to the satisfaction and profit of its subscribers. Our service to God is proven by our service to man, hence our time and talents are given that the good work planned by the Women's Board may be carried out by the women of the Church.

Our circulation has not increased to the extent we desired, but has made an advance of over three hundred and we are hoping for greater things from this convention. It is impossible to interest people in any good cause unless they are informed. How can our women be informed without reading the Magazine? The following report gives the financial standing of the Magazine.

After trying on all the colors of the rainbow, the Junior Missionary Magazine has chosen a pretty shade of red for its dress during the year 1910.

There has been a slight change in the arrangement of the material inside the cover. The plan for the year is to group, as far as possible, the contents of each issue round the Missionary lesson for the month. Thus India being the subject for the first three months of the year, these numbers have been special India numbers, although not to the exclusion of other material. The April number was a special Mountaineer number, and so on it will go, following as far as possible, the list of Missionary subjects for the succeeding months.

Miss McLaughry continues to write the notes on the Missionary lessons with much acceptance. Miss Mary Lawrence is contributing a serial story, dealing with child life in India, called Charag-ul-Din. Miss Anne Lee, a young artist who is attending the Pittsburg High School, has undertaken to illustrate a missionary rhyme each month. These rhymes are intended to be used as recitations at missionary entertainments, and with the help of the illustrations and a little ingenuity on the part of the leader, it will not be difficult to prepare appropriate costumes for the recitations. Miss Fannie Bradford is still our faithful correspondent in the Sudan. It is rarely she misses sending a contribution each month and besides, sends us most interesting pictures taken with the Junior Missionary Camera, which was purchased by the Juniors of the First Church, Allegheny, and sent to Miss Bradford.

Miss Kate Hill collected enough material to fill a whole issue. She interested the children of the missionaries gathered at the Annual Convention in Sialkot, and got them to write little stories of their life in India. She also pressed two fellow missionaries into service and wrote a number of short articles herself, describing life from the native children's view point. The whole formed a most interesting collection, and one much appreciated by the editor. Will other missionaries take notice and imitate the example?

Mrs. J. D. Sands has been most helpful to the editor many a time, giving the Magazine the benefit of her artistic talent. Miss Jane Kerr, lent her aid reading proof and attending to the details of getting out the summer issues.

The Missionary calendar, which closed in December, was a great success. The older children enjoyed coloring the designs and the younger committed the facts and verses to memory. One society used the Calendar to give an interesting missionary entertainment.

Again the editor asks that our missionaries will remember the Magazine by sending in short, simple reports of their work; interesting incidents and anecdotes, and photographs, especially those dealing with child life. If you desire the photographs returned, please say so. If not, those which are not used in the Magazine will be put in albums provided for the purpose by the Board. These albums will be kept in the Board Room and will form an interesting collection of missionary pictures. Please write the description on the back of each picture. The descriptions will be type written and placed underneath the picture.

Respectfully submitted,

Helen A. Wilson,

Editor Junior Missionary Magazine.

FINANCIAL REPORT OF

The first number of the Junior Missionary Magazine was issued January, 1899. Up to this time, our report began and ended each year with January. This year, it was decided by the Board, that all reports would close at the same time—the end of the church year, hence we bring to you, a report for fifteen months, ending March 31.

In our financial statement, you will see we report a balance of $230.18, but you will also notice $500, from the Board was necessary to meet the expenses of the Magazine in addition to receipts from subscriptions, sale of Calendars, Little Brothers and Junior Work, or in actual figures, about $450 more than the receipts.

This question of the deficit accruing to the Magazine from year to year, was thoroughly discussed at a Board meeting in January, and it was some solace to us to learn, through communication with four other denominational Boards publishing missionary papers for children, that as one expressed it—"we are all in the same fix, and have no suggestions to offer you."

Bids on printing the Magazine are taken every year, and this year we had a further reduction of $25.

We have had our engravings reduced to the lowest price possible for good work, one of the finest engravers in the country doing the work.

Several efforts have been made on the part of the Committee in charge of the Magazine, to add to our exchequer from year to year, as shown below, but these are only mites, as compared with our necessity. We are hoping some day, to have an endowment fund helping us out with its interest. But how are we to get this—not from receipts from the Magazine is evident. Is it too much to expect that some good friend or friends who love the children, will give it to us, either in life, or when they are making final distribution of their funds?

Our plea at present, is for one thousand single subscriptions at 25c each. If these can be secured, the yearly deficit will be reduced one half or more. As our good editor of the Mother Magazine has put it, we want a shower of subscriptions at this Convention, and the umbrellas have been provided for the shower.

We have added a greater number of new subscribers to our list than in any previous year, but with the failure to renew of the older ones, the subscription list remains about the same—7,000. The number of Magazines taken, in the Sabbath schools have increased.

The Women's Missionary Societies are doing good work by ordering the Magazines and circulating them among the children where there are no Junior Societies. We would like to see it introduced into a greater number of the primary and Junior classes in the Sabbath schools.

In the opening of the new year, with its rush of orders and many changes on the mailing list, some of the subscribers failed to receive the Magazine as promptly as usual and became a little impatient. In some instances, the fault was in the office, but more often, it was traced to Uncle Sam and his rural delivery.

We are always willing to duplicate orders while the monthly issue lasts, but our rule is to print just about enough to supply the monthly demand. Tracers have been sent out for lost Magazines, but with little success. Patience is necessary under such circumstances. It is more difficult to keep trace of club orders, than single subscriptions and especially when the club is not addressed to the same person two years in succession. Then too, it often occurs that the Church to which the Juniors belong, the place where they live and the post office are all different names.

Just one instance, out of a number—The Church is in Michigan, the pastor lives in Indiana, Rural Route, and they belong to an Ohio Presbytery.

REPORT OF

Temperance Secretary.

Southern Illinois Presbyterial.—Pages of literature distributed, 1,921; temperance sermons preached, 5; public meetings held, 1; temperance cards signed, 50; anti-cigarette cards signed, 72; temperance secretaries appointed, 2; money collected, $1.00

Des Moines Presbyterial.—Not so many reports as last year, but quite as great, if not greater, interest in the work. Very interesting reports.

Colorado Presbyterial.—Presbyterial Temperance Secretary wrote to all the societies "at that time," urged them to have secretaries appointed, a sermon preached and a good, pure temperance entertainment given in each congregation. Eight societies responded and nearly all had temperance sermons preached. One thousand two hundred pages of literature were distributed.

Chartiers Presbyterial.—Last year seven societies had each a Temperance Secretary. This year thirteen are reported and great interest manifested in the work.

Xenia Presbyterial.—Money received for temperance, $4.55. Literature, leaflets, folders and posters were sent to every Temperance Secretary in the presbyterial, and in every society where temperance was given a place on the programs it was found to be interesting and profitable.

Keokuk Presbyterial.—Sends a good, encouraging report. Three societies have elected Temperance Secretaries and much is expected this year.

Pawnee Presbyterial.—Reports four temperance meetings held. Two thousand pages of literature distributed. Collections reported for temperance work, $3.55.

Wheeling Presbyterial.—Secretary laments that it is so hard to get workers for the temperance cause. She wrote to each presbyterial, the proper thing to do and only five replied. She says, "We make our special temperance work amongst the juniors." Splendid idea.

Philadelphia Presbyterial.—Philadelphia has a splendid report. Pages of literature distributed, 125; letters written, 61: telephone calls made, 26; pledge cards distributed, 550; pledge cards returned, 156; money received, $10.00; money expended, $8.56. This presbyterial has eighteen Temperance Secretaries.

Mrs. R. C. Morton, Secretary.

REPORT OF

Parsonage Secretary

FOR THE YEAR ENDING APRIL 15TH, 1910.

The report of this department is given in somewhat different form from that of previous years. The change consists in giving in addition to the usual report, a detailed statement of outstanding loans. This is done, that you may have fuller information of the work, and with the hope that the needs of this department will appeal to you in a greater degree than heretofore.

During the year, fourteen (14) applications for parsonage aid were received as follows:

First Church, Corsicana, Texas	$1700 00
Montrose Avenue, Chicago, Ill.	3200 00
Benton Lawn, Kansas City, Mo.	2000 00
Bristol, Colorado	1600 00
Third Church, Seattle, Washington	2500 00
First Church, Spirit Lake, Idaho	2000 00
First Church, Guthrie, Oklahoma	2000 00
First Church, Oklahoma City, Okla.	2000 00
Hepburn, Iowa	900 00
Montrose, Colorado	2000 00
Forest Avenue, Bellevue, Pa.	3500 00
Nampa, Idaho	2000 00
East Mansfield, Ohio	1000 00
Wichita, Kansas	2000 00

Thirteen of the above were granted, action on one was deferred. Later the congregations of Montrose, Colorado and Hepburn, Iowa, withdrew their applications. Thus the aggregate amount needed for the above obligations of the Board, including the grant of $4,000.00, to Frenchburg, Ky., for residence part of the school building, and balance $500.00 due on loan to Allison Park, Pa., from previous year, is $30,000.00. To meet these obligations, $18,400.00 has been paid by the general treasurer, as is shown in her report, and is held as follows:

$9,900.00 by six (6) congregations and $8,500.00 by the Parsonage Secretary, pending completion of buildings and of legal papers.

The resources of the department for the year were as follows:

Balance, April 15, 1909:	$ 428 03
By Missionary Societies	2 118 00
By Thank-offering	4 000 00
By Return of Loan from congregation of Riverside, California	1 500 00
By Re-payments on Outstanding Loans	13 316 93
Total	$21 362 96

From these figures, it will be seen the income by return on loans, is insufficient to meet the demands, and again we urge societies to increase your contributions to the Parsonage Fund.

It gives us pleasure to report that during the year, four congregations have met their obligations in full, to the Board, viz:—Springfield, Mo.; Salineville, Ohio; La Crosse, Kansas and St. Joseph, Mo.

To date, the entire total of repaid loans is fifty (50), and the number of outstanding loans is sixty-nine (69) as the following statement will show:

REPORT OF

Thank-Offering Secretary

FOR THE YEAR ENDING APRIL 15, 1910.

Over the closed portals of the past year in the Thank-offering department of our women's work, might be justly inscribed: "A year of achievement." To analyze this year of achievement, is to find it composed of three distinct elements—a year of earnest, fervent prayer; a year of faithful, consecrated service, and a year of liberal, grateful giving.

These three God-given elements combined in one, mark success, while the absence of any one of the three would mean incompleteness. The highest aim any society can set before its members is—to pray—to serve—to give.

Prayer.

What is prayer? In many a heart there echoes back from childhood, the answer learned at the mother's knee:—"Prayer is the offering up of our desires unto God for things agreeable to His will, in the name of Christ, with confession of our sins and thankful acknowledgement of His mercies."

Christ set His seal of approval upon prayer, when He said to His disciples—"Ask and ye shall receive." "Whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask anything in my name, I will do it." He placed special emphasis upon praying for the salvation of the world, when, "seeing the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were distressed and scattered, as sheep not having a shepherd; and he said unto His disciples—'The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few; Pray ye, therefore, the Lord of the harvest, that he send for laborers into His harvest.'"

The power of prayer is set forth in James 5:16. The supplication of a righteous man availeth much in its working. This wonderful power is beautifully illustrated in the simple prayer of a young child.

Some years ago, a mother in New England, was helping her Missionary society to pack a box for a mission station in India. Her boy of four years, was deeply interested in the work. He asked all kinds of questions. When he came to understand that the box was to go to a people who worshipped idols, he asked his mother if he might send something all his own, to tell the heathen about his Jesus. As he had but one penny, she purchased for him a little leaflet entitled, "Come to Jesus." On the margin she wrote his name and age, with his little prayer—"May the one who gets this, soon learn to love Jesus."

The box reached its destination in safety and the contents were distributed, except the child's leaflet, which found its way into a bureau drawer of a lady missionary. It was hidden from human eyes for a time, but God was keeping a loving watch over it, until in His own good time He would answer the boy's prayer in a strange and wonderful way.

In the employ of the missionaries, was a language teacher—a Hindu priest. He was an idol devotee and would not listen to the gospel story. One day he decided to return to his mountain home, many long, weary miles away. On saying goodbye to the lady missionary, knowing he would not accept a Bible, God prompted her to give to him the leaflet—"Come to Jesus." He could read English well, and took the leaflet. For years, the missionaries knew not what had become of the priest or the child's leaflet, but God knew. His Spirit led the priest, on his lonely journey home, to read the writing on the leaflet. The childish prayer so touched him that he was eager to read further. For a time he was greatly troubled about his sins, but soon gave up his idols and became a devoted missionary to his own people.

Fifteen years after, American missionaries visited his mountain village, and found this converted Hindu priest with a large congregation of members, who had learned to love Jesus as their Saviour. What instrument did God use in saving those heathen souls?

One little four-year-old boy.

One little penny leaflet.

One little earnest prayer.

Prayer is a mighty power in God's hand in the building up of His kingdom on earth, hence God's people should pray and be ever in the spirit of prayer.

What is true service?

It is not a giving of one's self to some self-chosen form of service, or time or place, but an entire surrender of self to the Lord to be used how and when and where He wills.

The Master never forces anyone into His service. He must have a voluntary offering, hence through Paul He pleads:—I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service—Romans 12:1.

A giving of one's self a living, active sacrifice to the Lord, is the highest expression of true service one can give to Him who has redeemed us from our sins.

Years ago, when men were sold as chattels in the South-land, a trembling slave stood upon the auction block awaiting the result of the last bid, which would separate him from his wife and children, and all that was dear to him on the old plantation. Higher and faster rose the bidding, until at last it ceased, and the hammer of the auctioneer fell. A gentleman stepped up to the fettered slave and said: "My man, I have bought you." "Yes, Massa, I know," was the subdued response. "I have bought you at a great price." The slave nodded a tearful assent. "But more than this," continued the purchaser, "I have bought you to set you free," and striking off the fetters, he said, "Go! you are now a free man." Falling low at the feet of his deliverer, the overjoyed freed man cried out—"Oh Massa! I am your slave forever!"

Christ bought us with a great price—His own precious blood—to free us from our sins. He has opened the way for us to offer ourselves to Him for life service. Have we done it, or are we keeping Him waiting while we serve the world?

What is true giving?

It is not the giving from a mere impulse, or persuasion, or constraint, or from a cold sense of duty, but the giving upon which is written—"Thus saith the Lord."

The Scriptures hold up before God's people, various forms of giving—the tithe—the tenth of one's income which belongs to the Lord; the free will offering which must come from the nine-tenths, and the cap sheaf, the thank-offering which is the gift given over and above the usual measures of liberality, and given in recognition of mercies and blessings received.

It is the little love gift, given beyond all demands and given to express one's joy and gratitude for the great privilege of helping the Lord, through it, to win souls to Himself.

It is the thank-offering form of gift worship we have under consideration at this hour. The past twelve months in the Thank-Offering Department of our work, mark an era in which earnest effort was put forth to keep before the women of the church the high aim—To pray! To serve! To give!

Special efforts were put forth to have all the Presbyterial and Congregational Thank-Offering Secretaries with their helpers, organized into circles to pray daily for the success of the work, for well we know that when God's children learn to pray daily for any object, they soon learn to love it.

To incite to a more faithful effort and liberal giving, societies were urged to set a certain sum—in advance of previous year's gifts—as their gifts of gratitude to God, and zealously work to reach it before the time of their fall "Ingatherings."

The prompt and hearty response given to these two requests by many loyal workers over the Church, reveal the true secret of our being able, at this annual meeting, to place upon God's altar the goodly sum of $47,365.57—an offering larger than has ever been given, with the exception of the Silver Anniversary Offering of $76,000, in the fall of 1907.

The beautiful story of liberality, self-denial, consecration and gratitude, expressed through these individual gifts, is written in God's record book above, to the credit of all who by prayer, by service, by kind words of encouragement and by gifts, made this offering possible.

May God richly bless every one who helped to make the past year in the Thank-Offering Department of our work, a year of achievement, and may the Holy Spirit so move upon the hearts of all the women and children of the Church, that they may come into God's presence daily with thank-offerings to prove their gratitude for the mercies and blessings He daily bestows upon them.

"Oh the loads that we might lighten,
Oh the lives that we might brighten
Through thank-offerings freely given
Day by day."

Echoes From the Thank-Offering Blanks in the Home Land.

During last August, thirteen hundred and seventeen blanks were mailed to the Presbyterial Thank-Offering Secretaries for the annual thank-offering reports of their auxiliary societies.

Of this number, one thousand and seventy-eight have been returned. The Presbyterials on the Honor Roll of the year, for having sent reports from all societies, number five: Big Springs, Mansfield, Pawnee, Puget Sound and San Francisco.

Honorable mention has been already made in the June Magazine of the sixteen additional Presbyterials that returned all blanks but one or two.

Figures prove that forty-seven Presbyterials in the home land increased their thank-offerings over the previous year, seventeen of the number having made an increase of from $100 to $1,500 each. (See list in March Magazine.)

Nineteen Presbyterials gave larger offerings in 1909 than in the Silver Anniversary offering of $76,000 in 1907. (See list in June Magazine.)

The number of societies having reported an increase in offerings over the previous year is 470.

Number having given the same amount, 58.

Number having doubled their offerings, 78.

Number having given from 3 to 12 times more than their former gifts, 20.

Number reported offerings in 1909 which reported none in 1908, 67.

Number of Junior Societies, 220.

Number of Little Light Bearers, 3.

Presbyterials averaging over two dollars thank-offering per member, are Le Claire, $2.79; Oregon, $2.62; Colorado, $2.61; College Springs, $2.58; Idaho, $2.23: Frankfort, $2.13.

Forty-seven Presbyterials average from one to two dollars per member.

Echoes from the Thank-Offering Blanks of India and Egypt will be given in the August Magazine.

REPORT OF

Junior Secretary.

The year has been one of unusual activity on the part of the secretary. There has been a growing interest, and an increased demand on the part of the workers for new methods and to learn the best and most efficient way to develop the children in the missionary work of the Church. This has been evidenced by the increased number of letters received by the secretary with interrogation points and the requests for literature, Junior pins, topic cards, etc.

As we sent forth the Junior blanks for reports this year, we did so with great expectations of bringing to you the best report it has been our privilege to present.

We want to record what a pleasure it has been to work with the Junior report sheets this year. They have come in, neater and more nearly correct than ever before. The secretaries have obeyed instructions given in last year's report and in the circular letter sent with the blanks. One of our trials heretofore, in figuring up totals and making all balance, was these crosses (x) dashes (—) ciphers (0) and dollar ($) and cents (00) signs so mixed up with the figures as to make them unintelligible. But the secretaries deserve our thanks this year, because nearly all the reports stand out in clear figures and can be added at a glance.

In sending out the blanks, February 10th, to societies, we did so with the determination we must have 500 societies to report this year, no matter how much effort it might require from the General Secretary to get these, that would mean only 23 of an increase over last year, and with our newly organized societies, should more than make this up. Your secretary spent something over three dollars in postage and telephone messages, trying to get these but failed. All I ask of you is to put yourself in the secretary's place and say—"How would I feel under these circumstances?" It may bring you to a fuller realization of the importance of prompt attention to the annual reports. Last year, we reported 487 societies; this year, 483. 22 Presbyterial societies showed a less number than the previous year—one secretary asserting "that 8 societies failed to send me any report." Through the General Secretary's efforts, a few of these were obtained. Five societies disbanded because the pastor left. Was this not a time when it was most necessary to stand true to the work? Others disbanded for want of a leader. But there is a brighter side to the picture, most of the secretaries reporting the same number of societies as last year, and showing an increase, and then the joyful note of encouragement from many who say—"I love the work, it is just fine." "We have no difficulties; everything is encouragement." "We closed the year with a feeling of good work accomplished." "Our society did so well and earned every dollar of the money they gave." 36 societies organized this year as compared with 30 last year. 57 Presbyterial reports as compared with 55. Reports were received direct from two Presbyterials in Egypt, but none from India.

Albany Presbyterial first Junior report came to the secretary with three societies. Omaha Presbyterial Society, with ten Women's Missionary societies, reports only one Junior. Rock Island, with twelve women's societies, only one Junior. Detroit, nine women's societies, only one Junior. Our eyes will be turned toward these Presbyteries the coming year, to help us get the 50 new societies we are asking for, the coming year. In some places, it is not understood that all Junior societies in the Church, should report to the W. G. M. S. This order was given by the General Assembly in

THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN MISSION LIBRARY
475 Riverside Drive New York 27 N. Y.

1906. In several instances, the General Secretary received letters saying, "yes, we have a Junior society, but it is not under the care of the Women's organization.

The Junior reports give the following summary:

Number members in Junior societies		13 398
Number Life Members		139
Number members in Little Light Bearers		1 637
Total		15 174
Honorary Members		622
Grand Total		15 796

Increase of 692 members over last year.

Number uniting with the Church, 710.

Number graduating into Y. P. C. U., 507.

Number graduating into Young Women's Societies 111.

Total number societies, including Little Light Bearers, 483.

Total Contributions		$10 428 05
Of this amount, was given to the Special Work—The Elizabeth Gordon Home, Sialkot, India		2 435 25
To Thank-Offering		3 060 36
The balance to other missions and departments of work.
Number boxes and barrels sent	115
Estimated value	$561 15
Grand Total		$10 989 20

The total contributions show an increase over last year of $246.

The Young Helpers of Salem, New York, outdo all other societies in the amount of their contributions—$427.00—the greatest amount ever given by any one Junior Society in previous years, and is more than was given by the same society last year. The societies all seem to be growing in this grace, as there are more reporting over $100, than any previous year; three others reporting over $200, and only one of them a city church. This shows what can be done in country societies with a live, earnest leader, willing to give time and energy to the work.

It is evident all the Little Light Bearer's contributions have not been sent to the treasurer designated L. L. B. fund as she reports a less amount received than the Junior reports show contributed. Remember, $100 is taken from this fund each year and paid toward the support of Lois Reed McClure, the daughter of the only married lady missionary under the care of the Women's Board. The balance of this money goes to the infant department of Sialkot Hospital, India. The $11.00 contributed by many of the Junior Societies the past year for beds in the same hospital was simply to buy the beds and furnish the bed linen. It requires $350.00 to endow one bed but $11.00 to buy and furnish one. We had more than enough money sent for the latter. The Life membership money is used for the endowment of beds for children. Five of these beds now bear the name of Juniors of America.

Junior Special Work.

For the past five years, the special work given to the Juniors, has been the erection of buildings: A school building for the Musquakie Indians at Tama, Iowa; the Girls' School at Khartum; a parsonage at Tulsa, Oklahoma; the year just closing and the year to come, the Elizabeth Gordon home, in connection with the Sialkot Hospital, India. Junior leaders should bear in mind that we are not only building school houses where needed at home and in foreign countries, but by these efforts, we are building the characters of the boys and girls in these schools, as well as the characters of the dear boys and girls in our Junior Societies and Bands at home.

Five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) is the amount asked from the Juniors for the Elizabeth Gordon Home, this to be paid in two years. While they have not quite come up to the one-half of the amount this year, we are much pleased with the extra effort put forth, in that they have contributed a greater amount than in any previous year—$2,435.25, and their total contributions are also greater, which shows they have not taken it off some of the other departments of work to give to the special. However, the load will be heavier next year, as we will have to raise a little more than twenty-five hundred, but I feel sure the Juniors will do it, and thus add another building to their list. But superintendents, this means an effort on your part. The need for this building is to relieve the congested condition of Sialkot Hospital, under Doctor Maria White's management, and provide more sanitary conditions for the native babies placed in her care. 115 societies failed to contribute anything to this, their own special work. It will be necessary to have a contribution from every society next year, if the required amount is raised.

Unusual interest was manifested this year in the Junior pin, and still continues. It has been used largely as a reward for special effort on the part of the Juniors. It was difficult at times to keep up the supply, orders having to wait. These pins are 20c each, or $1.50 a dozen.

Junior topic cards were sent out free, to societies for this year, believing these would be an incentive to better work, and create a desire for them in the future.

The sum of $10 makes anyone under fifteen years, a Life Member of the Junior organization. It may be interesting to note that one $10 gold piece, given this year, for this purpose, had been given to the mother as a keep sake, and had been kept for years in the family. At last, it was brought forth to make the new baby in the family a Junior Life Member. The following is a list of those who became Life Members this year:

JUNIOR LIFE MEMBERS

April 15, 1909 to April 15, 1910.

Katheryn Work, Fort Morgan, Colo.; Edith Armstrong, Springfield, Ohio; Donald John Funk, Colorado Springs, Colo.; J. Marshall McDonald, 3rd Pittsburg, Pa.; Margaret Louise Robertson, Kirkwood, Ill.; Evelyn Kellogg, Santa Ana, Calif.; Allen Cutright, Homewood Ch., Pittsburg, Pa.; Fred Poerchman, Kirkwood, Ill.; Waldo Poerchman, Kirkwood, Ill.; Herman Bear, Kirkwood, Ill.; Margaret E. Kraeer, Midway, Pa.; Margaret E. Ballard, Midway, Pa.; Helena A. Ballard, Midway, Pa.; Dorothy Donaldson, Midway, Pa.; Harold R. Briceland, Midway, Pa.; Robert G. Cummins, Midway, Pa.; Mayone May Munn, Waterloo, Iowa.; Robert Peebles McDonald, Ellwood City, Pa.; Margaret Hare, Homewood Ch., Pittsburg, Pa.

The expressions of help obtained this year from the Junior Leader's Department in the Women's Missionary Magazine, is encouraging. As these messages went forth each month, the thought often came—Will these lines really prove helpful in stimulating to better and more enthusiastic work? On the blanks, we asked for suggestions for this department for the coming year. We thank those who have made suggestions, and attention will be given them. We feel that a blessing has followed these messages from the testimonies given.

The General Secretary counts it a privilege to lend a helping hand in every way she can for the advancement of this most important work, but she would urge a closer relation between the Presbyterial Junior Secretary and the superintendents of societies. Make use of the Junior Secretary of your Presbytery, for visits, answers to questions, for Junior Conferences, etc. It will be money well spent, to pay her expenses to visit the societies and stimulate and encourage the workers and the Juniors. Every Junior Secretary is supposed to keep herself well informed in regard to the work. She is not worthy of the position if she fails to do this.

In closing, we make a plea for 50 new societies next year. I'm sure you will agree with me, that this is a modest request, when I tell you this number represents only one tenth of the congregations in the Church, without any form of Junior organization. Carry home this plea, and say, yes, we will do it. Let us, as members of the Women's Missionary societies, rise to the opportunity which is before us, reach out and utilize the power which lies in these young lives, to help win the kingdoms of the world for Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. N. Wylie Stevenson.

A Glimpse of the Field.

"A Glimpse of the Field" includes an itinerary of more than nine thousand miles of actual travel since September.

One can more fully appreciate what this means, after covering the stretches of territory on the Western coast, from Bellingham to San Diego. In Colorado, you would scarcely imagine that thirty-six hours' travel by rail lie between extreme points in the presbytery, while the aggregate distance traveled by the delegates to their Annual meeting at Pueblo and return, was thirty-six hundred miles. This, with the high rates charged on those mountain and coast roads, is a serious handicap, not generally understood by those living east of the Mississippi River. Other hindrances and discouragements there are which are peculiar to the western districts.

Some who entered helpfully into missionary society circles last year, will not answer again to roll call. This constant changing of location tries the heart of pastors and people. Pledges made to congregations and societies are often overlooked and forgotten by those who have moved on to other ports, and must be made good by the faithful few.

Scores of people go West every year in search of health; some with no provision against the "rainy day" and must be helped by the local Churches. All honor to our Western women who in this way, minister "as unto the Lord," and do the other things too. Your Field Secretary's traveling expenses for the entire trip were met by the way, not one penny for this purpose having been taken from our Missionary society treasuries.

The women of Los Angeles Presbytery have assumed one entire salary for a missionary in India, "over and above" other contributions. The Colorado women have undertaken the support of Mary Lawrence, with the hope that before another year closes, their own Ruth Work in Egypt, will be under their care as well. At their last annual meeting, they voted a life membership in our General Society to their Corresponding Secretary, a graceful tribute to her faithful services, and worthy of emulation. "Little Pittsburg" Presbyterial (Kansas) with its five small societies, is falling into line in an effort to help along with Kate Hill's support, and thus relieve to that extent, the strain on our Foreign general.

This reference to our Sangla Hill worker, recalls a touching little incident that occurred at Canon City, Colorado. Kate Hill's sister was present when life memberships were urged. At the close of the meeting, she said to me—"Do you know mother's birthday is coming soon. There are five of us girls, and I'll write them to send in five dollars apiece, and we will make our mother a Life Member of the W. G. M. S. Nothing could please her better," and I recall the strong, handsome face of Kate Hill's mother, who counted it all joy to give up this precious daughter to the foreign field, and we know of other mothers who are giving up the fairest, sweetest thing out of their lives in the daughter who has gone to tell the Gospel Message to sin-darkened women across the sea, and we know they are realizing even in this life, the blessed promise to those who give up for the Kingdoms' sake.

Other presbyterials and societies have special work under consideration, but prompt, definite action must be taken if we hold our good financial record, and carry forward the work we ought to do this year. The weather man in our Junior signal service has forecasted showers in that quarter—what are the signs for us? Recently a native Arkansan was overheard discussing the weather with his neighbor; he advanced cautiously—"Hit shore does feel like rain, but they aint no clouds, en ye caint git rain athout clouds." This thing is in the air, and we are confidently watching for the cloud of pledges to rain down upon our Foreign general and clear it of these unpledged salaries, and make new work possible. We can make this our record year in love offerings to the praise of the glory of Him who hath delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the kingdom of the Son of His love—and He is "counting on" us to deliver oppressed womanhood from the bondage of superstition, into the liberty wherewith He has made us free. Will we be true to the trust?

The records show some advance made on the "silent two thirds." Some are falling into the line of workers, but oh the pity of it, that thousands yet, "in good and regular standing," in Church and society, have really no standing at all before the God of missions. Derelicts in His vineyard, unwilling to respond to the call for laborers, and hindering others who would. Daily recipients of the blessings and love which the Master has purchased for Christian womanhood, content to barter away these precious days of light and opportunity, making no return beyond what is required to hold a false position in the Church. Barren fig trees, showing nothing but leaves, when the Lord is seeking fruit. But they must be won for their own sake—for Christ's sake.

In our "Club of World-wide interest," we have a sufficient force to draw them from the allurements of social club and card table—we are willing to pay the price. What will interest those already enlisted. Our monthly programs may be voted dry by those we would win to our ranks. Prepare for your meetings as carefully and thoroughly as for a literary club, bring to the surface, the enthusiasm that may be smouldering in your heart, for the cause so dear to the heart of the Master, back it all up with prayer, and we will be seventy-five thousand strong before the close of this year's record.

Another suggestion, which our own white ribboners will appreciate and understand. Scores of women in our Churches there are, who make W. C. T. U. work the controlling aim and purpose of life. Not long since, a pastor's wife—president of the local W. C. T. U.—expressed regret that they had no missionary society, but declined to move in the matter, because she said there would not be room for both in their village, and begged me not to urge a missionary organization out in the country because it would interfere with her plans for a new temperance union. This is an instance where the good is the enemy of the best. Where it is not possible to be identified with both organizations, that which is distinctively missionary, should have first place with us—Why? Because all the blessings we enjoy today as Christian women, we owe to the GOD OF MISSIONS, and out of a sense of gratitude to Him who has made us to differ from benighted womanhood, let us get the conviction intrenched in our hearts that a Christian woman's sphere is not fulfilled until she has responded to His missionary injunction. The organization of our temperance department makes it possible to carry both lines of work together.

Again our statistical secretary must report that "outside appeals" are a serious handicap to the work, and that funds belonging only to our general treasury are diverted from the "regular channels." Some societies have promised to "never do it again." If this promise could be exacted from all of our auxiliaries, it would send a thrill of new life through every line of work.

Grateful mention must be made of pastors and laymen who have been almost uniformly courteous and helpful. Some who, at first did not understand the nature of our work, have become loyal champions of the cause.

One Sabbath morning, a certain minister politely protested against the presentation of my usual theme. He said, "you will have a fine audience, one half of whom will be men. Some other subject might be of more general interest." At the close of the service, he frankly confessed to a change of heart, and declared that hereafter his influence would be exerted to "help these women," and it only goes to prove what has been given through the Magazine—that INFORMATION is all that is needed to further our cause—and more men and women are getting it through the pages of our beloved Magazine then ever before.

Finally, remember "the light that shines farthest, shines brightest nearest home." Don't get one sided in missionary interests. I like the four square league in the laymen's movement, which is a basis of membership. "Ye shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria and unto the uttermost parts of the earth," for "there is no near and no far, but just one round world of lost, perishing souls to be rescued and saved through the World's Christ."

Field Secretary.

REPORT OF

Freedmen Secretary.

Work in the Southland.

The Church of today is face to face with the problem of the world's evangelization, and she needs the concentrated effort of every force at her command. We may divide missions into home and foreign, but it represents one great whole; and Christ's command is "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature."

Is there one of us who is not alive and interested in God's work in our own land? To Egypt and Sudan we send the Gospel by the hand of our daughters, and we send it to the negro race. God works in wondrous ways, and we find the negro taken from the jungle in Africa and planted in America; first as slaves and later with freedom thrust upon him. The latter change almost as bewildering as the first. God meant it for good that by His brethren, Joseph was sold into Egypt, and the same God is now making the "wrath of man" to praise Him by planting ten million negroes in the very heart of a Christian land. Our seventeen United Presbyterian missions are in four states, and there is but one Presbytery between the Ohio River and Texas, and from East to West the distance is equal to that between Philadelphia and Chicago, hence the missionary societies in Tennessee Presbytery are unorganized, but reports are sent in from societies, and these we group and call the Presbyterial Report.

At Norfolk, Va., Miss Flo Foster had charge of the sewing department with an enrollment in classes of two hundred and thirty-one. Miss Foster writes,

"neatness, cleanliness, and accuracy have been our aim, and in these points many have reached a very high grade." In the Domestic Science, in charge of Miss Maude Alston, two hundred and eight are being trained to cook and serve meals. Mrs. Chandler has served as matron of the Girls' Dormitory.

Bluestone, Va., enrolls fifty-two pupils in sewing, and Miss Davis reports good results, and writes, "we heartily thank the people for the new sewing machine, and the donation of one hundred and five yards of material which was received in "bbls" during the year."

Chase City, Va,. had seventy-two boarders in Vincent and Hunter Halls, and to cook three meals per day for this family and instruct also in domestic science has kept Miss Campbell and Miss Esdon fully occupied. Miss Esdon writes, "though we are not ideal, the work pays and pays well, yet with our growing work, to do it well, we need more room and equipment. Miss Kerr is in charge of the sewing room where sewing is taught from the stitches in the sample book, to dress making, including cutting and fitting." Miss Campbell writes, "The dining room in Vincent Hall was taxed to accommodate our seventy-two boarders, and it was not easy to make all comfortable at night during the cold weather. Many thanks are due the societies that sent us quilts and comforts. Before her return to India, Mrs. T. L. Scott sent us a feather bed, from which we made eleven much needed pillows."

Bristol, Va., Tenn. "It depends on which side of the street you are on, which State you are in, as the State line runs in the middle of the street, and street car track. The Railroad station is in Va., and the postoffice and mission building are in Tenn., so we class Bristol with the Tenn. missions. Mrs. Woodfin has a fine sewing school of one hundred and twelve pupils."

At Knoxville, Tenn., Miss McCahon visits the homes of all classes of the people, reading God's word, instructing and praying with and for them. Mothers' meetings held during the year —one hundred and twelve, and visits, nine hundred and ninety-five. Miss Anna Weir, in the sewing classes, has been giving more attention to the model work. Pupils are required to tell how they make their models, and why it is done in that way. Written examinations are given each term and the grades are good.

Miss Fisher, of the dressmaking department, reports progress both in numbers and interest. Eighteen are making sewing a specialty. They have taken great interest in making different styles of dresses and have done a larger amount of work for the public, than ever before. A class of twenty-five, working in the afternoons, receive pay for their work, and this helps them to pay their way through school. Seven of these are taking instruction in drafting patterns, using the Vienna Tailor system. The Senior class members are now at work on commencement outfit. It has taken over six hundred dollars to supply the needs of this department for this year, and it has been self supporting. Miss Grace Braham reports a class of seven will complete the course in domestic science this year.

"Miss Pinkerton is in charge of the dining hall and kitchen, Miss McKee of Elnathan Hall, Miss Spears of McCulloch Hall and Miss McDill of McDill Hall, and each has filled her place with pains-taking care and efficiency.

At Athens, Tenn., Mrs. O. J. Perry has been in charge of the sewing room, and fifty-nine pupils are under her instruction.

Riceville, Tenn. Miss Pattie Taylor had an average attendance of fifty-one, and reports show that all has gone well in the work. The people in this district are very poor and the sewing room and second hand clothing sent here, helps to keep many from want.

Cleveland, Tenn., has had a commendable increase in attendance during the year, and Miss Rossie Peter and Nettie Bonham have had charge.

Birmingham, Ala., enrolled ninety-nine in the sewing department, and under the direction of Mrs. Smith, good work is done.

At Arlington, Ala.. the sewing and domestic science is taught in Howinson Hall, which is also the girls' dormitory. It was once the plantation house of a white man, and is a comfortable two story house, with large, airy rooms, the wide upper hall being used for the sewing room. The following is the Industrial Department course of study at Arlington, with Miss Pattrick and Mrs. Imes in charge:

Sewing first year, needle and thread drill, threading needles and making knots, use of thimble and scissors, selection of needles and thread, talks on manufacture of needles and thread, basting, overhanding, hemming, felling, stitching and backstitching, gathering, overcasting, button holes, sewing on buttons, darning, talk on growth of cotton.

Patching, darning, matching stripes, gathering and putting on bands, hemstitching, tucking, French hem, French seam, making plain aprons. To enter the second year, pupils must be familiar with the first year's work. The sewing machine and its parts are studied, how to clean, oil and operate the machine, use of attachments, taking measures for garments, cutting by patterns, notes and lectures on sewing, cutting and making plain garments and plain dresses, repairing garments. The third year, making children's clothes, mens' underwear, fancy needle work, choice of materials, basting and fitting skirts, sewing on hooks and eyes, hanging, draping, cleaning, pressing and putting away clothes, talks on details of dress, choice of material for house and street wear, color and texture.

In cooking, the first year the lessons begin with care of the kitchen; study of the stove, its drafts, dampers, fire making, daily care of the stove, sweeping, dusting, scouring, dish washing, weights and measures, boiling, steaming, baking and broiling, marketing, cooking vegetables, making bread, doughs, pastry, cakes.. Deserts are studied during the second year, with the selection of foods, roasting of meats and fowls, frying fish, meats, etc., the cuts of meat, beverages, preserving, canning and pickling.

On the farm at Prairie, we had an average crop. Eleven tenants are still with us, and these are acquiring stock, and each year making progress toward independance, the independence aimed at, being to close the year free from debt and a little balance to their credit. In the school, the work is going on well. Many of the pupils want to sew all the time since they find that they can really make something nice to wear. Mrs. Cotton instructs in sewing and dress making, and Miss Rogers is matron of the little boarding hall and teacher of domestic science.

Close by the Jennie Hastings Galespie Memorial School building at Prairie, stands a small chapel. It had fallen into decay, and was only used as temporary quarters for boys who came to school from a distance, and did their own cooking. For some time, a young man named Solomon occupied it and hence it was named Solomon's temple. At the earnest request of the missions, the Board repaired this building, which was originally well built, ceiling it throughout with hard pine. New pews made in the Miller's Ferry shops and paint, and whole glass in the windows, neat green shutters to shut out the bright sunlight in the hot days; the sweetest toned bell in the whole country, put in the bellfry years ago by Judge Henderson, an organ sent all the way from Pennsylvania and thus the old delapidated house is turned into a beautiful chapel, seating one hundred and sixty psalm singing people.

Midway, Ala., reports one hundred and eight in the Sabbath School, with an average attendance of seventy-four. The Junior Society being the only organization for young people, all go to it, and hence we have a flourishing Junior society of eighty-one members. Prayer meetings are well attended. Miss Marsh, the sewing teacher, says, "we have more boys than girls in school, and few large girls are in attendance this year. The community is rural and many of the people bring material for garments to the school, and have it made up by their children."

Millers Ferry voices her Annual Report with a preface of thankfulness to God and the United Presbyterian Church, for sustaining a mission in their midst. Mr. Johnson writes, "The teachers and pupils have all worked hard, and we hope for much good fruit. We have been blessed this year with many agencies that have helped to lift burdens, and for these we praise the Lord. The yielding of many to Christian influences, and the perseverance of many others in the service of the Master cheer our hearts. Miss Jones, Miss Woods and Miss Williams have filled their respective positions with credit."

Much of the time during the year, Mrs. Tillie Johnson, Supt. of the Robinson Infirmary, has been in ill health; still she directed the work. Seven girls are in training for nurses. Some charity work has been done, but most of the patients pay. Sixty-five have been cared for from Sept. to March. The nurses continue to grow in favor. The Infirmary has been self supporting, and has a cash balance of $33.

Canton Bend has been reaching out into the waste places, and from a community some five miles distant where children have had little or no school privileges, quite a number have been gathered in. The enrollment is two hundred and forty. In addition to using half the sewing room, Mrs. Elliott writes, "we use our dining room as a recitation room. It is inconvenient, but we can not turn them away. Forty of these children have joined the Sabbath School and twenty-five have joined the Junior Society. The mother's meeting has thirty-five active members who discuss methods for improving the home. Also two classes, one in Bible and one in writing. The Junior Society has seventy-two members, and the Mission Study Book for Juniors is used. Miss Keenan has fifty-four in her sewing department.

Camden reports the whole plant taxed to its utmost capacity, notwithstanding the new building erected last fall. There are fifty in the dormitories, and the total enrollment of the school is three hundred and thirty-seven. One hundred and twenty of these, are in the sewing department under Mrs. Wilson and more than one hundred take domestic science under Miss Woodward.

Henderson, N. C. Mr. Cotton writes: "We are able to recount many blessings during the past year. We are indeed thankful to God for these blessings, and I want to take this opportunity to express our appreciation for what the Board and friends have done for us." Miss Burris, sewing teacher, on account of serious illness, left the work at the holiday vacation, and Mrs. Adams, wife of the Assistant Principal, has filled her place. A very excellent report must be condensed. Seven girls have taken special lessons in dressmaking with good success. Some were so anxious to sew they would have sat on the floor when the chairs were all filled, had it been permitted. One hundred and eighty girls and three young men are enrolled. Fifty-seven take domestic science under Miss Warren. The department is self supporting. "We have made the best of what we had, and we feel proud over what has been accomplished," writes Miss Warren.

Miss Totten, our one foreign missionary to the American negro, has had seventy-seven girls and thirty-seven boys in the boarding department, all but one of whom are professing Christians. All through the winter, many of the girls voluntarily visited the sick in the neighborhood, taking them food, singing, reading and praying with them.

One new building of two rooms was erected at Camden, at a cost of four hundred and five dollars and ninety-seven cents.

The chapel remodeled at Prairie, cost $416. All the buildings belonging to the W. G. M. S., were equipped with Excelsior Fire Extinguishers. Some few repairs have been made and insurance policies renewed.

The need for second hand clothing is as great as ever, but only ninety-three barrels, are reported received this year. An organ and one rug, several donations of bedding and several boxes of books are gratefully acknowledged. In several places, the work is calling for enlargement, but your interest, as shown by your contributions, will not permit it.

Henderson, N. C. is calling loudly for a small hospital and nurse training school. We cannot build upon the beautiful lot donated on condition that we erect a building on it for hospital purposes. We have asked for offerings over and above your regular gifts, for this building. A very little has been received as yet. Will you not take this plea home with you, and out of your abundance give a little to help a people who, when very ill, have not a place where an operation can be performed or serious cases treated. In the training of nurses, we can open up an avenue of usefulness for young negro girls and be a blessing to our own race as well. Several years ago, we were able to erect a small hospital and nurse training school at Millers Ferry because of the gift of a sum of money by a daughter in memory of a loved mother. Is there not some one who will do as great or greater things for Henderson? Could we not make this a memorial building? And is ten thousand dollars too much to ask for such a purpose? We think not.

We began the year with a cash balance of $494.72. Missionary societies have contributed $5,372, an increase over last year of $351. Our industrial departments contributed $1,304, an increase of $738. We received $8,300 from the Thank-offering, an increase of $300, making our total receipts, including a few designations from other sources, $15,064.03, an increase over last year of $1,083.68.

Total expenditures were $16,051.62, making it necessary to transfer from our reserve fund, $492.87, in order to close the account. This year, we start with an empty treasury, and we pray that we may not forget the harvest of souls that awaits the reaper, and that the measure of our obligation is the need of the whole land.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Samuel Yourd,

Freedmen's Secretary.

REPORT OF

The Home Mission Secretary

FOR YEAR ENDING APRIL 15, 1910.

As in years past the entire Indian Work of the denomination has been supported by the Home Mission Department of the Women's General Missionary Society. Workers have been wholly or in part supported in various fields and work has been prosecuted among foreigners in Pittsburgh and vicinity, and in Columbus Ohio, and a new work has been taken up among the mountaineers of Kentucky.

The following is a list of the missionaries for the past year:—

Rev. A. B. Dickie, Warm Springs, Oregon.

Rev. J. C. Smith, Tama, Iowa.

Indian Work

Simnasho, Oregon.

Rev. Mr. Speer at Simnasho has labored this year under special difficulties. The winter was an extraordinarily severe one and there was much sickness among the people. Mr. Speer's own health suffered and at one time he was threatened with pneumonia. But perhaps the chief difficulty in the way of progress in his work has been the unrest among the Indians on the reservation caused by reports that the Government was about to open the reservation to white people. Two railroads are being built along the south border and the rumor is that they have cast covetous eyes on a large tract of valuable timberland. Mr. Speer compares the excitement and unrest among the Indians caused by these rumors to the condition of a colony of bees that is being invaded by an enemy. They have been holding meetings to discuss ways and means to send a delegate to present their protest to congress and these meetings held often in distant parts of the reservation have greatly hindered church attendance and as Mr. Speer adds "Even when present at church I fear the all-absorbing theme has been responsible for much wayside and thorny-ground bearing of the Gospel message."

Mr. Speer has been allowed to instruct the children in the day school one day a week. A scripture lesson has been given and the children have recited verses they have committed to memory. The pupils have shown quite an interest and have laid up considerable portions of Scripture in their memories.

Mr. Speer reports that the Simnasho Indians are slowly losing many of their old customs. The change is not so rapid as we might desire, but ignorance or superstition are not quickly or easily dispelled. He says, "We have not yet succeeded in making church members, but I surely believe some of these people are members of the body of Christ and I think not a few have died in the Christian faith. They did not have sufficient intelligence or possibly lacked the courage to separate themselves from the tribe and publicly confess Christ as their Saviour, yet in private conversation, and by their reverent manner at the time of prayer, in the Church or on the sick beds, not a few have given very strong evidence of a change of heart and life."

Respectfully,

J. A. Speer.

Warm Springs, Oregon.

The last year has been marked by many things that encourage and cheer the work among the Indians of the Warm Spring Agency. The Evangelistic Meetings here paid well for the time, money and labor that they cost. There were thirty accessions. I have reported one hundred members, but we have a few more. The increased spiritual zeal is worth more than members. Five deaths occurred during the year, nearly all among the old people, and from eighty to one hundred years was their supposed age and I should put their age above those figures. There are old Indian women who can tell of things they saw and we know those things occurred over one hundred years ago. There was the death of Tollie Jack, one of our members, a school girl and a sincere Christian one whom we will very much miss. Just before she passed away, she prayed and sang the songs we used to sing, "Jehovah is my Light and my Salvation Near," and "But I, Poor and Needy, Still Trust in Thy Word," and then urged her father and mother to accept Jesus and He would be with them and lead them along the way. Her parents are both blind.

The standard and practice of Christianity is very much better. One of our good elders died last June and we miss him at the old home and at our meetings. I always liked to listen to his testimony and it was different every time. But we have four others who are excellent men and who are not afraid to testify for their Master and condemn the wrong seven days in the week, anywhere at any time.

The last winter was a hard one, deep snow and cold weather, and the loss of much stock. But this is a fine Spring. The Indians have more than doubled their sowing of grain. Several of the Government employees have helped us in our work. The farmer's daughter, Miss Tiffany, teaches a class every Sabbath, and nothing keeps her away from the services—a noble Christian young lady. One of our elders teaches a class of boys and does it well. Nearly all help and encourage in the temperance meeting. We have over one hundred members in the W. S. T. S.

My report is more favorable than ever before, and I hope, with the blessing of the Lord, if we live and labor for another year, to be able to give a report that will be better still.

Sincerely yours in the Work.,

A. B. Dickie.

Indian Mission, Tama, Iowa.

While the report does not seem so large as last year, the results of this year are larger, in that we have the same number of converts, and I believe the mission stands for more than ever before. We have not done so much band work as last year, but a great deal of effort has been put forth in getting rid of the whiskey, and these efforts have not been in vain. We have prosecuted eighty and one hundred "boot-leggers" and saloon keepers, and have not lost a single case. Marshalltown, our nearest large city, and a most wicked place too, will be dry in a very short time, all arrangements having been completed to get rid of the saloons. This means so much to us. We have had no drunk Indians on the reservation since last September, while the trouble with white men's coming upon the reservation with liquor is a thing of the past. We have instituted a new order of service, that of prayer meetings in Indian homes. This, we hope will have a double effect—1st., in presenting God's truth; 2nd., in making their home stand for something in camp. Miss Haft and Mrs. Smith have been working shoulder to shoulder, neither losing any opportunity for giving a bible lesson. Fred Lincoln, one of our first converts, has been doing splendid work as an interpreter. We all love him as a brother. Mrs. Tesson, our last convert, is a woman between sixty and seventy years old. It was surely interesting the day she wanted the mode of baptism explained to her and the meaning of the ordinance.

The following is the statistical report for the Tama Indian Mission for the year ending March 31, 1910:

Visits	966
Bible Lessons	600
English Lessons	580
Geography, Spelling, industrial, etc.	46
Music	160
Visitors	2400
Medicine	335
Deaths in Camp	4
Births	13

A number of blankets and comforters have been distributed among the old and needy and also provisions to the poor and sick. Cut quilt blocks were given out to nearly every home in camp, and in many cases quite a number went into the homes.

Respectfully submitted,
(Rev.) R. G. Smith,
Matilda R. Smith,
Ora E. Haft.

Mrs. T. C. Metcalf, interpreter to the Deaf Mutes of Portland, Oregon, writes of her work for the quarter ending March 31st, as follows:

Sermons have been interpreted every Sabbath, and the attendance all through the winter has been very good. Last Sabbath, there were thirty-two deaf people at Church. The usual social work is being carried on.

The deaf frequently speak of the pleasure and help it is to them to be able to attend Divine service on the Sabbath. They certainly apreciate the privilege they have.

Miss Anna Torrance worked in Whittier, California, until September, '09, when she gave up the Missionary work there to help establish a home for herself. She left the work in Whittier in good condition, a congregation having been organized with all its auxiliaries of Sabbath School, Missionary societies, etc., in good running order.

Miss Irma G. Allen has continued as Missionary at the First Church, San Francisco, under the same conditions as last year, the congregation providing half her salary. She has done a splendid work there, judging from the reports for February and March. Miss Allen writes "our work is steadily growing in numbers and we hope in Spiritual strength also. Because of increased attendance in the primary department, I have added three more assistants. The second intermediate Christian Endeavor society has increased both in numbers and interest. I trained this society for an entertainment which was successfully rendered the 4th of March. This took much time, but there was need of something of that nature, not for the value of the entertainment, but to bind the members more closely together socially, and increase their interest as members of the society. In some measure, my purpose has been accomplished, therefore, I think my time well spent.

The Home Department now numbers 280 members. I notice added interest among the home members in Bible study. During the year, 12 members of this department have been taken into the Church membership. Numerically my report is:"

Number special meetings attended	20
Number house to house calls	711
Number Parish calls	184
Total calls	895

In January 1910, Miss Adda Killgore was appointed Missionary in the Second Church, San Francisco, the congregation to pay part of her salary. Miss Killgore reports increased interest in the Christian Endeavor work, and the organization of an intermediate society, a home department of twenty members in connection with the Sabbath School. Rev. Dugan writes that Miss Killgore is doing a splendid work. The members received last Sabbath, were for the most part, brought in through her efforts. We had eight accessions and four adult baptisms.

Mr. Clyde Hartford has recently been appointed as a personal worker and Missionary in Pittsburg, Kansas, but no report has as yet been received of his work.

Report of work in Good Hope Mission for year ending April 15, 1910.

I have only been engaged in this work a little more than six months, having begun October 4th, 1909. During that time I have made 405 calls, have led the choir and held choir meetings one evening each week. Also a children's singing class on Friday afternoon of each week.

The present enrollment in the Sabbath School (main school), is 160, average attendance 110. Enrollment in the home department, 70; cradle roll, 30, making a total enrollment of 260.

We have a Christian Union with a membership of 43, and a Junior society which meets Sabbath afternoon immediately after Sabbath School, with a membership of 40.

All departments of the work are in a prosperous condition with increasing interest. I especially enjoy the work of the children.

Respectully submitted,
Agnes Wishart.

Approved:
R. J. Love, Mod. of Session,
E. M. Hill, Clerk.

Miss Edith Warnock began work in Dayton, Ohio, January 1st., 1910, and a Sabbath School has been organized there. An attendance of forty-two the second Sabbath, had increased to seventy-six on the first Sabbath of March. The average attendance for March, was fifty-six. Miss Warnock made two hundred and seventy-five calls in January, and one hundred and eighty in March.

Work Among Foreigners.

From April, 1909, until September, 1909, when Monongahela Presbytery relieved us of any further support of this Mission, the Women's Board paid $103.87 for expenses of the First Italian Mission, Pittsburg, Pa.

The Y. P. C. U. of First Carnegie, paid, through the Board, two hundred dollars on the salary of a Missionary for Carnegie Italian Mission. This Mission is doing a fine work.

Annual report of the Second Italian Mission in Brushton district, Brushton Ave., East End, Pittsburg, Pa., April 1, 1909, to March 31, 1910.

Number of Church members received in total, 77.

Number of average attendance in Sabbath School, 18.

Number of teachers and officers in Sabbath School, 6.

Number of average attendance in sewing school, 32.

Collection for 12 months at preaching service, $27.73.

Number of church members received during the year, 2.

Number of adults baptized, 2.

Number of funerals attended, 2.

Recently, we had at the Mission for two nights, an Italian Evangelist, a Bishop excommunicated from the Roman Church because he taught the Bible. The mission room was filled and other people standing out, because there was no room for them. The work has good prospects. New people come and ask to learn about Jesus and His love.

With all respect, yours,
Michael Rev. Renzetti.

The work in Columbus under the leadership of Mr. Napoli, is now well established. Extensively the work does not seem to be large, but intensively it is very large, the work that has been done is thorough, and those who are attached to the Church, are evangelical and spiritual.

During the year, fifty Bibles have been sold, also twenty-four new testaments and six song books.

"The members willingly render testimony to their Faith in Christ, since none are ashamed of the Gospel of Christ. Each Sabbath, two or three of the young men visit the families of their Countrymen, distribute tracts and magazines, and lose no opportunity of talking their faith in Christ."

One of the members of our Mission, is in correspondence with the American Bible Society, with the prospect of appointment as Colporteur. Another of the young men, of more than ordinary natural endowments, and of fine presence, would like to study for the ministry. Care for a widowed sister with a family, have prevented any active steps in this direction.

"To the Roman Catholics, the word 'protestant,' signifies a renunciation of God, and blasphemy to Jesus Christ and to all the saints in their calendar. In one of our first meetings at Arlington, a Roman Catholic interrupted with terrible blasphemy, whereupon, I reproved him with love, and his response was, 'I am a Protestant.' At another meeting, a woman began to deride and scoff. But at the following Sabbath service, she was there again and reproved another for disturbing the service." (Extract from personal report of Mr. Napoli.)

As at present constituted, the Columbus work is most encouraging.

Rev. J. G. King,
Sup't. of Italian Work.

Work Among the Croations.

This mission is located on East Ohio Street, North Side, Pittsburg, Pa. It is under the care of the Women's Board and is supported by the Women of Allegheny Presbyterial.

In this Mission, a Sabbath School is carried on, with average attendance during the past year of forty-nine.

A sewing school is also conducted on Tuesday and Saturday afternoons, with an average attendance of twenty-five. A drawing class for boys met on Friday afternoons through the winter, with an average attendance of nine.

A class in needle work has been started for young women, and is meeting with some encouragement. Miss Ballas, the missionary, has made five hundred visits during the year, and distributed over five thousand leaflets and a number of Bibles in the English and Croation languages.

Work Among the Mountaineers.

For several years, we have been hoping to have the way opened for the women of the Church to do some definite Missionary work among the Mountaineers of the South. Last year, appeals came from the people of Frenchburg, the County seat of Menafee county, Ky., to open up a school for pupils ready for a high school or college course. Two committees were sent to Frenchburg to look over the field, and find out the needs and conditions. The people of the town were so anxious to have this school, that they offered to donate the land, some five acres, and money and labor to the amount of about one thousand dollars. After very serious consideration of the pleas of the people, their needs and the situation of the town as a center for work in the surrounding isolated country, it was decided to locate a school there. Then came the details, what kind of a school was best suited for the work, what kind of a building to put up, and how large a building would be needed, were some of the questions to be decided. Finally the matter was referred to an architect, and several plans submitted. The plan chosen as being the most suitable for the work, shows a school and residence combined, with six class rooms and a residence for teachers, consisting of kitchen, dining room, living room on the first floor, and bed rooms and bath on the second floor.

It seemed a great pity that no work should be done all winter while the building was being erected and hence it was decided to repair the small church, donated to us by Lexington Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church, and begin our school in a small way. The Church was painted and put in good condition; lamps, chairs, blackboards, and all things necessary for school work were furnished.

In October, our Home Secretary accompanied Miss Bertha Houston, who was chosen as our first Missionary to the Mountaineers, and together they became acquainted with some of the people and made plans for beginning the work. Miss Houston's report will tell you of what has been accomplished so far.

In March Miss Houston seemed to have her hands so full, and the demands on her were so great that it was decided to send some one to relieve her and Miss Jane Kerr of Shadyside Church, Pittsburg, Pa., was asked to assist Miss Houston in the work. Miss Kerr gladly consented and went to Frenchburg April 1st., to work for three months, without compensation.

We are happy to be able to report the beginning of a work which, please God, may reach out over all the world and be the means of making many lives better and stronger and bringing souls into the Kingdom of God.

REPORT OF HOME MISSION WORK AT FRENCHBURG SINCE OCT. 13, 1909.

October and November were spent in repairing, cleaning and furnishing the Church. The first services were held December 5, 1909.

I have held twenty-two Junior services on Sabbath afternoons. No one over fifteen is admitted. The attendance has steadily grown from twenty-one to fifty-one. The Shepherd Psalm, Beatitudes, Commandments, verses, books of the Bible and many Bible facts have been learned.

New Testaments were given the pupils at the holidays and six have read them through, and some others almost through. Collections have been taken the last three Sabbaths, the total amount being eighty-eight cents. We had one public Junior service with 124 present.

Thirteen Sabbath evening services have been held on the nights when there was no service in the village, having attendance varying from thirty-one on stormiest nights, to one hundred and four on a fine night. We had a choir of from fifteen to twenty-five young people. These services consisted of praise, prayer, bible readings, memory verses and a little talk. There has been the best of order and attention at all services. A special thank-offering of $4 35 was raised. Rev. McConagha, President of our College at Stanton, preached four nights during holiday week, to large audiences.

Twenty-two choir practices have been held and forty Bible Songs learned. A day school, consisting of one general review class, was taught for three months. The attendance was ten the first month, eighteen the second, and twenty-two the third.

Fourteen needy people were clothed during the winter.

A library and reading room have been kept open two days a week. Three hundred and fifty books have been read.

Along lines of Industrial work, a coal house has been built, church-yard fenced and flower seeds planted around the fences. Old fence rows and hillsides have been cleaned out, and an orchard consisting of 156 trees, 150 grape vines, currants and goose berry bushes—all the generous gift of Mr. and Mrs. George Moore of Xenia, Ohio. A new fence is being built around the college property. The orchard and garden are planted on the shares.

The sick have been visited and most of the people of the village and adjacent country called upon.

Bad weather and bad roads delayed work on the school building, but now it is being pushed toward completion, and is the object of interest to the whole county. The help and prayers of the people of the Church have done much for the work and we plead for them to be continued.

Yours in the Master's work,
M. Bertha Houston.

Such long lists of donations of fruit, trees, books, clothing, papers, and Christmas gifts of all kinds have been received by the Frenchburg Mission and the Indian Missions that it is impossible to publish them in detail, but thanks are given to all donors.

REPORT OF

Foreign Department

FOR YEAR ENDING APRIL 16TH, 1910.

During September, 1909 Mrs. John A. Wilson—our well beloved Secretary—on account of ill health and the pressure of Junior Magazine and other important duties was constrained to give up the work of the Foreign Department which she had performed with such marked ability and faithfulness. The missionaries with whom and for whom she labored, loved and trusted her saying—"We are always glad to receive a letter written by Mrs. Wilson." The members of the Foreign Board, as well as our own, felt that the work was safe in Mrs. Wilson's gentle hands and had great confidence in her judgment. Her decision to withdraw from this department was accepted with deep regret. The undersigned took up the work at the request of our Board with great hesitancy and trepidation—"for what can the man do that cometh after the King?" She gave up the Home Department with manifest reluctance and a longing heart for the work so dear to her through twenty-six years of service and entered into this new field simply because no one else seemed at present available. You will, therefore, be prepared to read with a kindly eye this first report prepared by the writer of our work in "other lands."

The Missionaries.

The first verse of the tenth chapter of Luke says "The Lord appointed other seventy also and sent them two and two before His face into every city and place whither He himself would come."

In going over our books in order to present a corrected roll of workers to the members of our Women's General Missionary Society, my heart and mind turned to the passage quoted above, when I found that we had exactly seventy representatives of the Master and the church engaged in the work of this department. Like the first seventy we love to believe that He sent our seventy before His face into every city and place whither He himself would come. That explains why so many souls have been led to confess Christ in the fields given to our church. He sent the workers into the places whither He himself would come. He is laboring in India with our forty-two whom He sent there; in Egypt with our twenty-eight whom He sent there, and in the Sudan with our two whom He sent there. His sending them is the assurance that He himself is there. With this blessed assurance shall we hesitate to support any others whom He may send and to erect and maintain all institutions which He shall show us are needed to give the Light of the world to these dark places of earth?

Do we not believe that He has promised to give to our seventy all the guidance and blessings and powers that He gave the first seventy and are not our hearts glad and joyful when they make the same report to Him and the church that the first seventy made?

In October, 1909, He sent out six new missionaries which He expects us to support—the Misses Elizabeth Lawrence, Roma Beatty and E. W. Machonachie to India—the Misses I. L. Cabeen, E. N. French and L. A. Mitchell to Egypt and Miss Anna L. Barrackman to the Sudan. In February, 1910, He sent Miss Margaret Hormel to India so that there are eight new recruits hard at work learning the languages in those far away places, who were all in their homes a year ago. Of those who were home on furlough this time last year five have returned to their fields of labor—Dr. Maria White, Miss Mary R. Martin and Miss Mary J. Campbell to India and Miss Helen Ferrier and Miss Roxy Martin to Egypt.

Cupid has not spared our ranks and our Foreign Board's missionaries seem to know where to look for proper helpmeets in their missionary work—Miss McLean was married to Rev. Elbert McCreery; Miss Sue Cooper White was married to Rev. J. A. McArthur and Miss Claney to Dr. Lambie since our last report.

We wish them all every possible joy but must insist that our Foreign Board send out married missionaries only in the future so that our forces may not be disturbed!!

Ill health has also reduced the number of our active workers. Dr. Lawrence was obliged to leave Tanta Hospital last December and come home to recuperate. You will be glad to know that her health is much better. Dr. Brady will act as her substitute until July first. Dr. Gilbakian has had trouble with her eyes nearly all winter, and was ordered home by the doctors and India Association during April. Her welcome will be saddened by the absence of the face of her dear mother who died just about the time she was leaving. Pray for her. Dr. Simpson had gone part way on her homeward journey before she heard of Dr. Gilbakian's enforced retirement. She writes—"Had I known of Dr. Gilbakian's illness, I should have delayed my furlough." But we are not sorry, for she—Dr. Simpson—is taking post graduate work in London while she waits to take in the great Edinburgh Conference before she comes to this country. Miss Minger, Miss Hamilton, Miss Buchanan. Miss McConnell and Miss McDowell are also home on furloughs, while Miss Hogg remains in Scotland to visit her mother before she makes her first journey to America next autumn. When Miss Paden of Egypt arrives, there will be ten off the fields this year—two more than we sent out last year.

Of our number home on furlough, we are sure of only two who expect to go back this autumn—Miss Mary Lawrence and Miss Logan.

Watch our Magazine for any further changes in the ranks of our valued representatives.

INDIA.

Our Responsibilities.

Medical.

The new building to be used as a residence for our workers in Memorial Hospital, Sialkot, has not yet been commenced. We are expecting the plans and specifications by every mail.

It is to be known as the Elizabeth Gordon Home in honor of our first woman missionary to India. Although now taking a well deserved rest at home, she is as much interested in India as ever. We also expect to send out, in the near future, to Sialkot hospital, quite a new equipment of beds, surgical tables, instruments, etc. Read the brief story the workers tell concerning Memorial Hospital and Sialkot Dispensary, Pasrur Dispensary and Good Samaritan Hospital, Kala Dispensary and also dispensary at Jhelum.

Memorial Hospital.

"When my father and mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up." Psalm 27:10.

A poor woman in the last stages of tuberculosis, was lying in a narrow, dirty street in Sialkot—cast out to die, without care or attention by her relatives and neighbors. Our city missionary brought her to us, and she was given a clean bed, and clean clothes and good food. Although she died not long after her admission, still we believe it must have proven an example of the Christian religion to the heathen round about, who so often do things only as a means for an end.

A woman walked for a month to find a missionary who would take care of her and her child. Because of exposure along the way, she had severe rheumatism. She was brought to us by a faithful Indian sister who delights in taking in homeless ones and widows. She was loved and cared for by us and though she did not speak Punjabi, having come from the tea plantations farther south, we tried as best we could to make her understand more about the Saviour of whom she had heard before she came to us—though she did not seem to be able to grasp the full meaning of who He was.

The year has been full of work and interest. Nurses and other assistants caught the spirit of the wonderful revival in our Boarding School in Sialkot, singing of Psalms continued many times far into the night, even the non-Christian patients, becoming enthused with the spirit, would gather around the singing group and could not be persuaded to go to their beds until the singing ceased. One woman broke down sobbing one night in the midst of a Psalm. When asked by the Doctor the reason of the outburst, she said—"I feel as though God was pulling my heart out."

Many serious operations were performed during the year, the patients being from among the low and high castes. Several operations were performed in high caste homes in cases where, because of the strict purdah observed, the women could not be brought to us. In all the visits to these Christless homes the doctor has tried to leave some message of the Gospel for these poor women who sit day by day and talk nothing but gossip.

In the spring, about the time the two Mohammedan girls from the school desired to become Christians, there was, of course, much excitement among the city people, and as a result, the attendance at the hospital decreased considerably for a month or two, for one of the girls was a constant visitor and spent much time with our hospital assistant after dispensary hours, and her relatives had also come quite regularly: her sister-in-law had undergone an operation during the winter, but when the girl took a stand for Christ, of course they all stopped coming and tried to stop as many of their friends as possible. But gradually they returned, and during the hottest months of the year we seemed to have more patients than ever before, so they seemed to have realized that they were harming only themselves by not coming.

The indoor patients have also been very attentive during the year, and we believe there are a number who have gone away believing in their hearts, that Christ is the only Saviour, and though they have gone, we still pray that the way may be opened before them. One woman, who had come to us said—"I never once heard the name of God, and here you try to teach us about Him."

The nurses have been drilled faithfully in medicine and nursing, and even though the weather was hot, they had to have their lessons; all were quizzed during the morning rounds. Practical lessons were given over the patients.

The total number of indoor patients during the year, was 671. New cases in the Dispensary, 12,275 and the total of new and old was 34,507. Major operations performed, 93—minor, 240.

The work in Pasrur Dispensary was increased this year because of the tubercular convalescent department, built there in connection with the Girl's Orphanage. Many of those with affected lungs were cured, and many became much stronger. The doctor made five medical examinations of the girls during the year. Several difficult cases were handled very skillfully by the efficient helper—Mrs. Maitment—who has carried on the work in the Dispensary with increasing success during the past year. There has been an increase of about 2,000 in the number of new and old cases during the year, 7 cases were cared for as indoor patients. The total number of cases, new and old, is 17,031.

Good Samaritan Hospital,

"The mercies of the Lord are fresh every morning," and we should have many fresh mercies to recount during the whole year, but we so often forget them. But one of His loving kindnesses to us this year, has been the number of new converts of our own or other Missions, who have been sent to us for protection, and who have stayed with us for various periods of time. This is not one of the usual uses of a hospital, but I think it was a very good thing for our Christian nurses to have these recent converts with us.

Some of the patients have been very interested listeners. One Hindu woman, who was in the hospital for several weeks for an operation for cancer, was very willing to hear the Gospel, and said on leaving, that she was coming back some time to stay all night just to hear more and sing songs with us. She was very pleased with the result of her operation, as she feared it might prove fatal and when the wound healed so promptly, she was very grateful.

During the year, we had two unusual operations. In both cases the wound healed perfectly. The stitches were removed the seventh or eighth day, and both were so patient, doing exactly what they were told, the first few days after the operation, and lying patiently in bed for three weeks after. They went home very glad to be so well.

Another poor woman came from their neighborhood shortly after, and wanted us to perform the same operation for her. As she had been tapped seven times and gallons of water removed she thought if we would only operate on her she too would be well like the others. We tried to explain to her that hers was a very different matter, and we could not insure a perfect recovery as she had a very much enlarged liver which was the cause of the trouble. We relieved her trouble and she went away very happy

These are a few of our patients but there are many others whom we remember with interest. One especially comes to mind, a Hindu widow who was in the hospital only three or four days and then had to go home with relatives who came for her. She wept bitterly on leaving, saying she had never been so happy in her life as during these few days and that she would come back again if she ever had the opportunity. While with us she followed us around from one ward to another to hear the Bible reading in each. She tried to sing the Punjabi psalms with us and learned several during these few days. It is delightful to teach that sort of listeners and we feel grateful to the Lord for the many opportunities that we have.

Last winter I was in a District, touring for a month with the Jhelum missionaries and frequently had over 50 patients in one afternoon and one day I remember we had 80 women and children who received medicine. In the mornings we visited the houses in some of the near villages and told them the "good news" and if any asked for medicine, we would tell them to come to the tent in the afternoon.

We sent our first candidate for examination for Government certificate as midwife last spring and she passed her examination creditably, and we hope to have three nurses ready for the examination this spring in Lahore.

We have had some changes in Kala but the work has gone on continuously, with an increase in the number of patients attending and for all His mercies we praise the Lord.

As you know we are responsible for only one school in India. Read the report which follows:

Educational.

Girl's Boarding School, Sialkot.

The Lord has been mindful of us, He hath blessed us.

The past year has been a remarkable one. Early in the year the Lord visited us by a gracious out-pouring of the Holy Spirit. Satan with all his power came to resist and overthrow the work of God. But He is faithful who hath promised to work for those who wait for Him. It took days and nights of vigilance, but the victory came, and not a few of the girls were led into a new life. The prayer life has been very marked, not only among the older girls but some of the younger ones have been wonderfully taught and led of the Spirit into this blessed service.

There has been a marked development in the work of the Christian Endeavor Society, while the different prayer meetings, missionary societies and the Sabbath School have been regularly held and the attendance and interest encouraging. The girls have twice during the year asked that they might give a thank-offering and with all their heart have they entered into the joy of giving.

As to numbers, the building is filled to its unmost capacity, 171 boarders. Generally speaking the health has been very good. We have been spared all contagious diseases that are constantly abroad in this land.

The staff of teachers remains much the same as in former years, and their faithfulness has been just as marked. Eleven girls entered for the Government Middle School examination, ten of whom passed. Two have gone into the hospital work, one has become a village school teacher, three have gone into the High School and five are with us here in the Normal Department.

One thing that might be mentioned as particularly encouraging is that the parents are willing and even anxious that their girls remain in the school until they have finished the course. This shows that the village Christians have been brought to the place where they realize and appreciate the importance of an education for their girls. This in itself is a marked advance in the work.

Very much more might be and really ought to be said of our blessed work in India but space in our Magazine prohibits at this time. See monthly issues and bulletins for further details.

EGYPT.

MEDICAL.

Martha J. McKown Memorial Hospital, Tanta.

By Dr. Anna B. Watson.

With profound gratitude to the Heavenly Father for the privilege of serving Him by ministering to Egypt's sick ones, your workers submit the following report:

Number of patients admitted to the Hospital,.....446
Number of operations (clinic 81, hospital 93) total.....174
Number of villages and towns represented in Hospital..... 74

CREEDS:

Moslems	222
Protestants	100
Copts	80
Catholics	38
Jews	6
Number of visits to clinic.....	14 051
Number of house visits	978
Number of village visits.....	75
Number of villages visited.....	24
Number of obstetrical cases.....	37

You will note the large increase in each department. This is especially encouraging since the advance has been made in spite of a new free ophthalmic hospital within a few minutes walk of the Mission hosptal, and a new general hospital and clinic opened in the center of the town. There yet remain hundreds, yea thousands, of sick ones in Tanta and the surrounding district uncared for.

Early in the year two little brothers of four and five respectively were brought to the hospital. Their's was a sad story—left motherless, a relative had cared for them. She had beaten and abused them until they were dangerously ill—so very ill that to admit them to the hospital seemed to be only to give them a comfortable place in which to end their days. Weeks, months passed and they developed into strong, healthy boys. Then the question arose what should be done with them? To return them to their old surroundings would be criminal. Through Miss Harvey, the father consented to send them to the Calioub Orphanage, where they will remain until eighteen years of age. Is it not worth while to rescue two little Moslem boys and have them placed in a Christian orphanage where they will learn a useful trade and best of all, hear daily of Him who lived and died to redeem them?

There came from a distant village, a poor, miserable, sick, blind little fellow, the skin shrivelled and dried like parchment. There seemed nothing left of him but skin and bone. The doctor looked him over and said—"You are too late in bringing him; we can do nothing for him." The father had known of others who had come into the hospital and gone home well. He had perfect confidence that the hospital would restore his boy to health if only it would admit him. The boy was admitted. For days, he crouched in a corner of the sun-porch, limp and listless. Weeks passed—the old dry skin took on new life, the little body began to round out—he became a joyful, playful little fellow. Then came the operation for cataract, followed by days of patient waiting. We gathered about the little patient to see the joyous expression when the bandages were removed. All labor was repaid a thousand fold. He had spent months in the hospital; psalms, the Lord's prayer and many Scripture texts had been memorized. Can these impressions on this young heart ever be effaced? Could the father find terms to express his gratitude for healing and sight restored? Cases like this, going back to their remote villages, dispel prejudice against the Christians and open the way for the evangelistic worker.

Hassan was older than the boys usually taken into the hospital. His father, a rich Moslem, the boy could afford to pay for a private, room, so he was admitted. He had been a pupil in a Government school and could read well. He became deeply interested in the Bible as he heard it read morning and evening. He wanted a Bible of his own and produced the money with which to purchase it. He insisted on having a good big one with large print. This he read by the hour while lying in bed. He became deeply interested in the Bible stories. When he recovered, his father's secretary came to take him home. The Bible was among his possessions; the secretary objected, saying, "It will never do, your father will never allow you to bring that book into the house." The boy replied—"I would like to see him stop me—isn't the book nice? I bought it with my own spending money." The two left the hospital, the boy with the big family Bible under his arm. As long as their voices could be heard, the secretary was protesting, the boy defending himself. May the Holy Spirit enlighten his heart.

For six months of the year, the hospital was favored with the services of a licentiate from the Synod of the Nile. He taught the clinic, hospital and villages; and by his training, tact and gentleness in dealing with the people, he became a valuable worker. At the close of six months, according to the appointment of Synod, he left to take up work elsewhere.

Of the seventy-four villages represented in the hospital, only twelve have any kind of organized mission work in them. It, therefore, becomes necessary to devise a plan by which patients who have been in the hospital and clinic, can be followed up by being further taught in the villages.

There have been some changes in the personnel of the workers. Miss Sill, after faithfully serving the hospital for three years, returned home for a much needed rest.

Miss Mintier, who served part of the term in Egypt, returned to take up the work. She has, by her faithfulness and devotion, been a true helper. Miss Reid, a niece of our lamented Mrs. W. J. Reid, and a woman of wide experience, is giving to this institution the benefit of her valuable experience.

Doctor Brady kindly consented to remain in the work another year, and has given valuable service. She moves quietly among the patients and silently preaches her daily sermons in the language best understood by the people —the language of love and sympathy.

Can there be a greater or a grander work than that of giving relief to suffering bodies and at the same time offering salvation to sin-sick souls? This has been the aim and object of the Martha J. McKown Hospital—to heal the sick and preach the Gospel, the two-fold work of ministering to body and soul.

The clinics at Benha and Mahalla Kubra, have each been open about half the year.

BENHA REPORT.

Educational.

Girl's Boarding and Day School, Tanta Egypt.

Last year we undertook the maintenance of a boarding department for the Girls' School at Tanta as new work—that the results have justified the extra expense, is shown by the following report written by Miss Atchison:

Though official information will reach you through blanks from Association, concerning the work under my charge, which you so kindly provided for, a year ago, yet I want to tell you what it has meant to our entire school to have experienced the growth you made possible.

It is impossible to separate the good results obtained in either department, nor could the workings of the two departments be separated in a building as crowded and compact as ours has been. Yet it is a perfectly evident fact that growth in every way has been materially due to the financial aid included in your grant which provided for the better premises and the reputation of a fuller equipment through the boarding department.

The success of the year has so exceeded our expectations that we do not cease to give thanks to Him who has guided and blessed the undertaking from the very beginning.

One of the strongest evidences of a prosperous year is in the financial relief through increase of tuitions, paid readily and willingly by a splendid class of patrons.

Last year, we were elated when our tuitions amounted to $70.00 per month, while this year, our average monthly income from the day school has been $105.00.

If it were not for the large item of rent, the school would be very inexpensive, now that we have a simple equipment.

The increase of numbers from an annual enrollment of 192 to 255 in one year has been gratifying. The crowded space in the class rooms of our enlarged quarters has given us a sense of genuine pleasure, as we look into the faces of so many new pupils from Moslem homes and see them enter heartily into the study of the Gospel.

By way of illustration, on last Friday at the Delta Presbyterial Convention of the Women's Missionary Societies which met in Tanta, our larger girls gave an exercise composed entirely of Scripture references bearing on the sinful state of man and the means of salvation. The majority of girls on the platform were Moslems, several of whom came in new this year. Some were in attendance last year but refused to reverence the Word. It is my earnest conviction that the change in the character of the school by adding the boarding department and making it more of a home has wrought much of the change in their attitude.

Two of our day boarders are Mohammedan and many of the inquiries about the boarding have come from people of that faith.

It is the plan now to canvass the district as thoroughly as possible during these three early summer months and arouse an interest in us personally before the coming year.

Our accommodations consist of only two small dormitory rooms with provison for fifteen girls. Thus far we are able to report five in the boarding department.

Since we were unable to advertise this part of our work previous to its opening, we feel not at all discouraged, but rather encouraged by indications for the future.

IN THE SUDAN.

Annual Report of Girl's Boarding School. Khartum North.

The second year's work in the Girl's Boarding School, Khartum North, has been rich in blessing. True, there have been discouragements and hindrances but there has been much to gladden our hearts and encourage to greater effort.

The shifting population among which we labor, is one source of discouragement. We frequently have a child started and becoming a real credit, when the father, a Government employee, will be transferred and the child will be taken from us. If only we could persuade the parents to leave their girls as boarders! But though the Moslem patrons acknowledge our good work in the day school, they are hardly ready to leave their children under Christian influence for weeks or months at a time. Then too, customs and superstitions hinder our work. A girl of twelve is usually "too old" for school. Custom keeps our Coptic girls at home for forty days after a birth. A death brings forty days of mourning. These things are hard on the pupils, but are no less trying for the teacher who must make or reform classes.

Religious instruction in schools for the Sudanese is under the ban. According to the law, we must ask each parent: "Will you permit your child to attend the religious exercises of the school?" Last year there were a few requests that children stay out of the room during prayers. Tact on the part of the teachers overcame the parent's scruples and since that time Moslems, Jews and Christians have listened to the reading and teaching of the Word.

Egyptian parents as a rule, are extremely lenient. Children come to us who have never had their wishes unanswered, and fond mamas expect the teacher to correct all faults of disposition which their foolish leniency has engendered. They would make us responsible for the child's behaviour at home as well as at school. We frequently hear this—"My child is very naughty at home. She does not obey a thing I say. I want you to punish her for it." We have two little Moslem boys in school who are favorites with everyone. One day their father, who is an Artillery Officer, called. The lads looked at each other in dismay. "We didn't do a thing in the house today. Why did our father come?" they said. One mother said to us—"It is your duty to make the children fear you and to punish them."

As for the encouragements: The school is becoming more generally known, the boarding department growing and after long absence and attendance at other schools, a number have returned to us. At present our day school numbers 53. 20 of these are boarders. We have 9 Moslem boarders, only one whom comes from the better class. The father of the one, received part of his education at Assiut College. He has lost his prejudice for our religion. The girls who have been with us a year or more show marked improvement. Our "Topsy' of last year has developed into an earnest little student and is reading in the New Testament along with thirty-six others. One little Moslem girl takes her Testament home at night and her father reads the lesson with her. The children can sing 17 of the psalms from memory. They know several in English as well. They have learned many passages of Scripture and they are memorizing the catechism. One morning a Coptic woman called. She was greatly interested in a new Scripture roll. The pictures were bright colored.

I mentioned the names—Moses, Samuel and Daniel, but she knew none of the stories connected with the names. I called Rosa to tell the stories. How the child's face lighted up when she saw the babe in its strange cradle! Turning to her mother, she said, "Why, don't you know about Moses." Her eyes and hands, as well as lips, told the beautiful story. Rosa is only one of the many girls who are learning these Bible stories. Those who barely knew the Arabic alphabet a year ago are studying arithmetic, geography and beginning grammar.

They are learning letter writing and the highest class has written some very creditable compositions. 37 of the girls are studying English. The girls are all taught sewing, first plain sewing, then hemstitching, lace making and embroidery. One of our little Moslem boys is highly interested in making a chemise. Incidentally he talks to his teacher of Syria and of the Christians who, he says, are very bad people. He insists that the teachers are Moslems because they are so nice.

One of our greatest causes for thanksgiving is the faithfulness and thoroughness of our two Syrian teachers. We are also blessed with faithful servants.

The other day Zahea, a Coptic girl, came to Sitt Ratiba saying, "Sara (whose father is a Polish Jew) says that Jesus Christ has not come yet." Zahea was quite distressed. It was during the sewing period that Sitt Ratiba took time to explain how the Jews had failed to recognize their King in Jesus of Nazareth. Then she told them of the second coming of Christ. All of the girls listened with the keenest interest.

Some 40 homes are represented in our school. We have called in 20 of them. Several women are asking for lessons. Our work opens before us. We pray that we may continue faithful, for we know that "in due season we shall reap if we faint not."

If you desire to know the cost of the work herewith described, read carefully our Treasurer's report. Much of the money comes in unexpected ways.

Miss Eleanor Porterfield left us a bequest of $1,000.00 to endow a bed in Tanta Hospital.

In the will of Mrs. Katie Rose Harden

the name of our Society was incorrectly stated and the court decided that we could not claim the bequest, so the amount went into her residuary estate. As her husband and other heirs believed that Mrs. Harden meant to give $3,000.00 to our Foreign Department, they very lovingly and generously sent us the entire bequest minus the inheritance tax. To manifest our deep gratitude for this beautiful action and to perpetuate the memory of the one they loved so well, the new chapel in school building in North Khartum is to be known as the Katie Rose Harden chapel. "And their works do follow them."

The increase in appropriations is only what might be expected by the normal growth of the work. The total amount is $75,000.00.

New Work.

Little new work has been promised for next year. The Day Department of the Girls' School at Tanta, the support of a Girls' School at Karmous, Egypt, which was entirely supported by the missionaries last year, and the payment of the rent of an apartment for our ladies have been taken up as new work. Requests for a Girls' Boarding and Day School at Sangla Hill, India, a rest home at Erkowit, Sudan, a medical department for men at Tanta Hospital, Egypt and a missionary residence at Luxor, Egypt, have been presented. Action thereon has been deferred until further information has been received. Pray that He whom we serve may guide us to decide as He wishes.

United Presbyterian Women's Association.

It is my very great privilege to bring to the 27th Annual Convention of the Women's General Missionary Society, here assembled, the kindliest greetings of the Women's United Presbyterian Association—an organization separate and distinct from the Women's General Missionary Society, and yet very closely allied to it in its mission and work.

When our Master sent forth his disciples with the great commission, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature" he also instructed them to relieve distressed and suffering humanity. This then is our work—caring for the orphan, the sick and the aged ones, and our commission is our Master's words: "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

It is not so much my purpose to review the work of the past thirty-one years, since the organization of our first work, nor to trace its growth from the maintenance of a small orphan's home, in a rented house, to the three model institutions—The Orphans Home, Columbia Hospital, and the Home for the Aged, which stand as monuments of what God hath wrought, through the faith and labors of the United Presbyterian Women's Association. Rather, is it my purpose to give you a glimpse of the present work, but more especially, would I speak of its needs.

During the past year sixty-nine children have been cared for in "Our Orphans" Home. Many applications came to the Board of Managers, which they were compelled to refuse, for want of room, and this must continue, until the new Home for which the Managers are planning, with larger and better adapted buildings and larger air space for a play ground, becomes a reality.

Our Orphans' Home is all that the word implies—a home where the children's development, physical, mental, and their spiritual welfare is carefully looked after. Every means is used to have them become upright christian men and women. Rarely will you find a happier or better behaved family of children.

Mothers, as the shades of evening fall, and your children gather about you for the story and to lisp their evening prayer, will you not think about and pray for the motherless little ones in our home in Allegheny, and is the mother love not large enough to reach out and help them in some way as God directs you?

Many of you are familiar with the growth of the work, which from the care of the sick among our Orphan's Home children God, in His Providence, led the women into a larger and a greater work, and as a result, Columbia Hospital was formally opened June 1st, 1906. With the growth of the work, it became necessary to erect a new dormitory for our nurses, and also additional rooms for Hospital work, all of which left the Hospital with a heavy debt, and the managers are earnestly praying, that God would put it into the hearts of those, to whom He has entrusted the silver and the gold to help lift this burden.

During the past year ending Oct. 26, 1909, 1496 patients were cared for, of these 388 were free patients and 28 were guests of the Hospital. Many who received care and treatment were those whom the Church delights to honor—her ministers and missionaries.

The work has been growing steadily—the daily average number of patients during the past month was about 105. Of this number, nearly one third were free patients.

Our Training School for Nurses enrolls 49, these with the help necessary to carry on the work, means each month a large outlay of money. Dear friends, figures seem inadequate to tell the story of the work being done, health restored, lives prolonged, grateful and loving words for care bestowed, these tell far more to us, and somehow we remember them longer. No appeal from the sick and the afflicted ever failed to reach the Master's ear. Does it reach yours, dear friends? Will you not help to relieve suffering humanity?

The care of the aged always seems a natural sequence of the work of caring for the children. This was made possible in the beginning, by the kindness of friends, and now our aged people have a beautiful home amid lovely surroundings, where, "as the shadows lengthen," in contentment and peace, they await the coming of their Lord. The atmosphere is one of peace—you feel it as you enter the door, and unconsciously these words come—

"Deal gently, kindly with the aged one,
Grieve not the care-worn heart.
The sands of life are nearly run,
Let such in peace depart."

Ah! here is the secret of lives prolonged beyond the four score and ten. The law of kindness is the rule of this household. Seventy-three aged people are now being cared for in the home.

What more beautiful way of perpetuating the memory of the dear father and mother "who have gone before," than by sharing in the work of caring for other aged ones in the home? And now, dear friends, I wish it was possible for each one of you to look on these pictures for yourself—to see the bright, happy faces of our children, to visit with me, the sick in Columbia's beautiful, sunny wards, where every appliance known to modern surgery and practice, is used; a staff of loyal, skillful surgeons and physicians, and devoted nurses do all in their power to alleviate suffering, see the comfort of our aged people in their declining years. I feel very sure your interest in this work would deepen. I ask you to take home with you, the little booklet—United Presbyterian Women's Association—read it carefully, prayerfully, ask your pastor to read it, have it read in your Missionary Meeting. Plan for an "Association Day," as recommended by the committee, and adopted by the Buffalo Convention. Get some warm hearted, loving woman in your congregation to tell of the work. Canvass your congregation, see if there are not those who would, by the payment of one hundred dollars, deem it a privilege to become a life director of the Association.

How many Life Members, at twenty-five dollars each, can you secure, and follow this by getting every woman in your congregation an annual member, by the payment of one dollar.

What do we need in "our homes?—just what you need in your own homes—groceries, provisions, vegetables, fruits, bedding, everything that can be used in your own home, will be helpful to us in our work."

Do you want a safe investment for your money? "He that giveth to the poor, lendeth to the Lord." To our friends throughout the Church, who have contributed to our work, we are truly grateful.

And now, ere we close, we would pause to offer a loving tribute to the memory of those, who during the past year, have been called to higher service.

Most lovingly and tenderly would we remember our dear friend, Mrs. Isabella Arnold, into whose heart God put the beautiful thought of caring for our ministers and missionaries, and by whose generous gift Columbia Hospital was made possible.

Within the past few months, two, upon whose wise counsel we were accustomed to rely, for many years, have been called to their rewards:

Major A. P. Burchfield, and Major Robt. E. Stewart. On October 14, 1909, Mrs. May Waddell, for nine years a faithful and valued member of our Board of Managers of the Home for the Aged, entered into rest.

"They do rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. R. L. Noble,
Aspinwall, Pa.

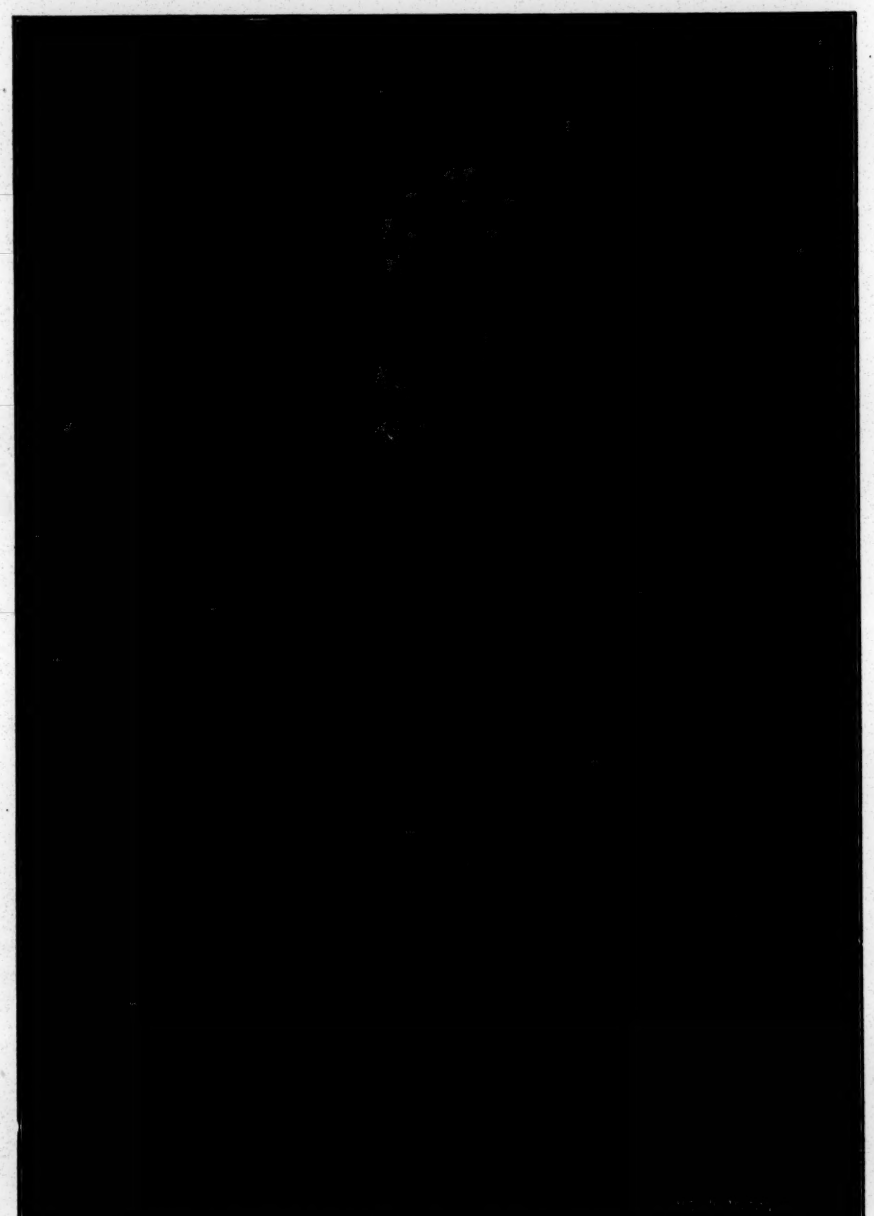
Mrs. Russell Sage and the Endowment.

THE friends of the American Bible Society will look with pleasure on the picture of Mrs. Russell Sage which, by permission, The Magazine is able to present as an appropriate conclusion to the final record of the Endowment campaign. The $500,000 which she offered to the Society has now been paid in, the largest sum ever given to the Society by any living contributor. Her praise is in all the churches, and we need not repeat at length what has already been fully said of the deep appreciation and gratitude felt by the Board of Managers and Officers of the Bible Society, and all its friends and supporting constituency, for her gift which has made possible the securing of a million dollars additional endowment.

Figures cannot give an adequate impression of the movement which has now reached its consummation. It is interesting to know, however, how many persons participated in the raising of the $500,000. It was not the gift of a few. 4,725 have subscribed $1; 1,238, $2; 2,071, from $2 to $5, 1,299, $10; 479, $25; 285, $50; 365, $100; 32, from $100 to $250; 39, from $250 to $500; 2, from $500 to $750; 54, $1,000; 2, $2,000; 2, $5,000; 2, $10,000; and 2, $25,000; a total of 10,595 individual contributors. In addition to these, 3,132 of the churches made offerings, and 164 Auxiliary Bible Societies. If the individual members of these organizations could be reckoned up, the total would be in the tens of thousands of those who have actually contributed.

The thing above all others greatly to be desired is the arousing of a genuine popular interest in the Society, and a spirit of sacrifice to carry forward its work which is a great factor in the solution of the Home Mission problem.



MRS. RUSSELL SAGE.

"It has been reserved for a woman not only to make the largest gift, but by the method of her gift to awaken a new interest and a new enthusiasm in the distribution of the word of God."
